FOOD PRICES BEGIN DOWNWARD COURSE IN THE UNITED STATES

Twenty-Two Staple Foodstuffs Show a Decline of Two Per Cent at End of September as Compared With Prices in August

Washington, Oct. 20.—Food prices in the United States are on the decline, the Department of Labor's Bureau of Statistics announced in a statement asserting that the retail price of twenty-two staple foodstuffs showed a decline of two per cent. at the end of September as compared with August last.

The decreases announced, based on statistics gathered from all parts of the country, are the first to be recorded since the world war began, with the exception of a decline in June, when food was five-tenths of one per cent. cheaper than in May.

The prices of twenty-two staple foodstuffs, however, are still eighty-eight per cent. above the average prices for the same foods in 1913.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Steps to prevent an abnormal increase in the price of sugar in the United States because of the existing shortage were taken to-day by the Department of Justice.

Attorney-General Palmer notified beet sugar refiners, who have been withholding their products from the market until the price situation became stabilized, that the United States Equalization Board had determined that ten cents was a fair price to be charged the wholesalers and that any charge in excess of that amount would be regarded as a violation of the Food Control Act.

On the Market
The refiners were asked to telegraph their concurrence in this price, which would mean that they would put their supply on the market immediately.

The price to the wholesaler heretofore has been nine cents. Retailers have been allowed a charge of one cent a pound for controlled sugar since the old prices. It is assumed that the new retail increase will not be greater than the wholesale advance.

IMPROVEMENT IN WILSON'S CONDITION

Digestive Disturbance Has Subsided and President Is Comfortable

Washington, Oct. 20.—President Wilson's digestive disturbance has subsided almost completely and he was comfortable to-day after a fairly good night, according to his physicians, who issued the following bulletin:

"The White House, October 20, 11:25 a. m.

"The President's digestive disturbance has subsided almost completely. After a fairly good night he is comfortable this morning.

"(Signed)
"GRAYSON,
"RUFFIN,
"STITT."

Statement by Tumulty.

Washington, Oct. 20.—President Wilson had a very good night and has recovered from the attack of indigestion which he had yesterday, Secretary Tumulty said to-day after a talk with Rear-Admiral Grayson, the President's physician.

No Serious Concern.

Washington, Oct. 20.—While it is recognized that even a slight incidental ailment undoubtedly would have a tendency to increase nervousness and thereby to a certain extent retard recovery, in White House circles to-day there were no indications that the slight digestive attack suffered yesterday by President Wilson was the cause of serious concern.

LARGE VOTE IS REPORTED IN ONTARIO GENERAL ELECTION

Toronto, Oct. 20.—Reports from all corners of Ontario indicate a bumper crop of votes in the general election to-day for the fifteenth Ontario Legislature and the balloting on the referendum for the repeal of the Ontario Temperance Act and its three kindred questions.

Generally fair and cool weather throughout the province, with harvesting completed and the roads in good shape in the country districts, are contributing in some measure to the big vote being brought out to-day. The principal incentives, however, are the additional interest of the referendum and the general extension of the franchise to women.

The polls opened in Toronto and neighboring ridings at 8 a.m. and 9 a.m. (standard time) in all other parts of the province. This meant 7 a.m. in Toronto, where daylight saving time is still being used. At that hour there was a large percentage of polling booths in Toronto still unopened. Numerous men and women were waiting the advent of the deputy re-

"The troops will aid in moving transports or do whatever else is necessary," said General Davison.

KING OF SPAIN IN FRENCH CAPITAL

Is Paying a Brief Visit There on His Way to London

Paris, Oct. 20.—King Alfonso, who has come from Madrid for a brief visit to Paris on his way to England, reached here at 10.20 o'clock this morning. He was received by Stephen Pichon, the French Foreign Minister, and by representatives of the Premier and the Minister of the Interior.

Important Role.
Paris, Oct. 20.—Commenting upon the visit of King Alfonso to Paris, the newspapers point out that Spain, having a seat in the Council of the League of Nations, can no longer be considered neutral and must assume an important role in the world's affairs.

"This role," says The Echo de Paris, "accords with the great history of Spain, threads of which King Alfonso is on the point of reuniting in the course of his forthcoming visit to South America."

Better Understanding.

Madrid, Oct. 20.—The Epoca, commenting on the trip of King Alfonso to Paris, says it is not so important as some of the newspapers have asserted it would be, "but we are sure it will result in a better understanding between France and Spain."

All the members of the royal family except the Queen, who is still confined to her room by a slight indisposition, were at the station here to bid the King farewell. He took with him the Marquis Torrecillas, Master of Ceremonies.

Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, in a speech at Derby last night. He expressed the belief that railway employees could contribute to the management by reason of their experience and ability, and in this capacity their services would be valuable to the railroads and the country.

LETTS AT RIGA NEED AID AGAINST GERMAN-RUSSIANS

Paris, Oct. 20.—Newspapers here announce that General Mangin, of the French army, has been nominated as chief of the Inter-Allied Mission to supervise the evacuation of the Baltic provinces by German troops, who up till last week were under the command of General von der Goltz. They declare, however, that the nomination has not been confirmed, but that it seems probable that this or some similar post has been offered to him. General Mangin is understood not to have made known his decision as yet.

REPORTS CLASH BUT FALL OF PETROGRAD SAID TO BE IMMINENT

Anti-Bolshevik Cavalry Has Cut Railways Leading From City; Bolsheviki Division Virtually Wiped Out of Krasnoe Selo

Paris, Oct. 20.—Contradictory reports are being received from Russia and it is impossible to confirm rumors that Petrograd has been taken by the Northwestern Russian Army. It seems certain, however, that General Yudenitch's troops must be at the gates of the city, if they have not already taken it.

London, Oct. 20.—The white flag was hoisted over the Russian Bolsheviki fortress of Kronstadt Friday, it was announced by the War Office here to-day.

London, Oct. 20.—Pskov, the important railway junction about 180 miles south of Petrograd, is under bombardment by Estonian artillery, according to an announcement by the War Office here to-day.

Petrograd is reported as preparing for a siege. Machine guns have been posted on principal streets and food is being brought into the city.

Petrograd is virtually isolated, according to the announcement, anti-Bolshevik cavalry having cut the railroads leading from Petrograd to Vitebsk, Moscow and Volodga. The Petrograd-Vitebsk railway has been cut at Vitebsk and the Petrograd-Moscow railroad at Toona, south and southeast of Petrograd, respectively. The line to Volodga has been cut south of Lake Ladoga.

Division Wiped Out.
A Bolsheviki division which was being rushed to Petrograd was virtually wiped out at Krasnoe Selo when General Yudenitch took that outpost of Petrograd, according to the advices.

BACK TO CANADA.

Ottawa, Oct. 20.—The Government has expended nearly $1,250,000 in bringing back soldiers' dependents from Europe, and 17,113 dependents were brought back before the armistice and 34,426 have been returned since.

FALL OF KRONSTADT HAS OPENED WAY

Estonian Troops Now Can Advance Along Shore to Petrograd

New York, Oct. 20.—The Associated Press to-day issued the following: "The hold of the Bolsheviki upon Petrograd, which, though reported repeatedly captured, was still in Bolsheviki hands at latest reports from accepted sources, is fast weakening, and the fall of the city seems imminent, according to to-day's official advices from the British War Office. Kronstadt, the great island fortress defending the old capital from the sea, capitulated Friday and there is nothing now to prevent the advance of the Estonian troops along the shore toward Petrograd, which the fortress guns had thus far held up."

Railways Cut.
Anti-Bolshevik cavalry, in a wide circling rail, have swept around the city, starting, apparently, from the general vicinity of Gatchina, and have cut all the remaining railroads connecting Petrograd with the rest of Russia. The main line to Pskov and Berlin, with its branch to Revel, fell into the hands of General Yudenitch when Gatchina was taken. His cavalry has now cut the Vitebsk line, running directly from Petrograd through Tsarskoe-Selo and Pavlovsk, at a point about twenty-five miles from the city. The main trunk line to Moscow was reached and cut at Toona, thirty miles southeast of Petrograd, where the destruction of the bridge over the Toona River would insure an interruption of traffic with the capital for a considerable time.

WIDE FIELDS FOR PLANES IN CANADA

Sykes, British Civil Aviation Controller, Writes of Opportunities

London, Oct. 20.—Major-General Sykes, Controller-General of Civil Aviation, in an article in The Observer on the Overseas Dominions and colonies and aviation, dwells on the great opportunities in Canada. He says aircraft can be employed to extend the influence of the railways, and will give an impetus to every branch of Canadian commerce. As an instance of their usefulness in development of virgin land, Major-General Sykes suggests an air route linking up Quebec with the Lake Superior point on the Canadian Pacific, from where the services might radiate toward Winnipeg and thence to Vancouver and many parts of the western provinces. Aerodromes could be planned in the very centre of new towns springing up in Canada instead of outside as in older countries. Aircraft might be used for discovering prairie fires, herding, patrols, timber location and survey work. Mapping by aerial photography should supersede the present costly and slow method of trigonometrical survey.

General Sykes concludes by expressing confidence in Canada's very great future in the air.

FRENCH PARLIAMENT IS DISSOLVED

Election Soon; Moving Speech by Deschanel at Closing Session

Paris, Oct. 20.—The curtain was rung down last night on the war Parliament of France. Premier Clemenceau was the leading actor in the final drama.

Paul Deschanel, President of the Chamber of Deputies, deeply moved, eulogized the war session, paid homage to the heroic soldiers of France and the dead, reviewed the task accomplished by Parliament, and expressed the hope that the new Chamber would raise France from the ruins of the war.

Before the applause had subsided, M. Clemenceau arose and in a loud, clear voice read the decree closing the session.

Deputies, cheering and shouting "Vive la République," crowded around the Premier to congratulate him. Then bidding one another goodbye, they left the Chamber. Most of them left for their constituencies to-day to begin the campaign for the new Chamber of Deputies, which will meet in December.

AMNESTY MEASURE ADOPTED IN FRANCE

Soldiers Who Deserted in Face of Enemy Not Included

Paris, Oct. 20.—The Senate on Saturday adopted the amnesty bill, but rejected the clause passed by the Chamber of Deputies providing amnesty for certain categories of deserters.

The amnesty bill, which was adopted by the Chamber was sweeping in its scope, authorizing the liberation of a vast majority of the soldiers held for violations of military laws.

Excluded from those granted amnesty, however, are soldiers convicted of desertion in the face of the enemy and some who were convicted of especially serious cases of insubordination.

Men convicted of taking part in the mutiny of the Black Sea fleet last winter are not included in the amnesty.

H. MORGENTHAU'S GIBRALTAR PLAN

London Papers Not Stirred by Suggestion States Share Control

London, Oct. 20.—The statement made by Henry Morgenthau, former United States Ambassador to Turkey, on his return to the United States suggesting that Great Britain share the control of Gibraltar with the United States, was not generally reported here. The Morning Post alone carried something like a full report under the headlines: "Gibraltar—a Naive Suggestion," but did not comment on Mr. Morgenthau's words.

A brief agency account was printed by The Graphic, which referred somewhat vaguely to the "Gibraltar proposal," the paper commenting in general terms, urging the United States to accept a mandate for Constantinople, Armenia and Anatolia, but passing by the Gibraltar recommendation as a "little obscure." Other papers did not mention Mr. Morgenthau's statement.

"IMPOSSIBLE!"

"On our line, sir," said the manager of the local-very local-railway, "not only has a collision never occurred, but on our line a collision would be impossible."

"Impossible," exclaimed his friend.

"Oh, come! I know that the latest automatic safety devices are excellent things, but impossible is a large word."

"It's literally true with us, sir," replied the railway magnate. "How can it be?"

"Why, we only own one train!"

A NEW FIELD FOR CANADIAN TRADE

Jonescu Says Roumania Needs Farm Implements and Railway Supplies

London, Oct. 20.—(Reuter's)—"There are unique opportunities for Canada to assist Roumania in the work of reconstruction and for her manufacturers to send goods to that country," is the opinion of Take Jonescu, Roumania's leading statesman, who has been spending some weeks in London. M. Jonescu, the most prominent lawyer in Roumania, has occupied the highest positions in the Roumanian Cabinet, and he is well-known throughout Europe as a leading authority on international and Balkan affairs. For many years he has traveled widely, having spent at least three months each year in Western Europe, where he knows intimately all the important statesmen of the different countries. After August, 1914, his name became famous as that of the man who always advocated the entry of Roumania into the war upon the side of the Allies and the arrival at a good and lasting understanding between the Balkan countries. A true Democrat and Liberal in the broader sense of the words, he has mixed with the chiefs of the political, diplomatic, scientific and literary worlds so freely at home and abroad that his opinions upon the future of his country and upon the openings for Canadian trade there are of unique interest.

Similar.

"Now that Canada is not only agriculturally but industrially important," he said, "she can in many ways help Roumania, which has lost almost everything in the war. This is especially the case because there are two distinct similarities between the countries. In the first place, while Canada is colder in winter and perhaps warmer in summer than Roumania, both countries, being subject to extremes, their climates more or less correspond and what is suitable to one is suitable to the other. And then, while Roumania is much more thickly populated than is Canada, neither country has a sufficient population to insure its adequate development without wide recourse to machinery. To a large degree therefore, the same kind of labor-saving devices are required, especially those devoted to agricultural purposes.

"At the present time special opportunities are open to Canada in Roumania and in the Balkans generally. It may not be pleasant to have to admit it, but before the war Roumania, Serbia and even our enemy, Bulgaria, were dependent for their manufactured goods, and particularly for their machinery, upon things for the most part made in and imported from Germany and Austria-Hungary. The Central Powers cannot at present re-establish their foreign trade, and in any case goods supplied by them would not be acceptable to us. Consequently, especially so far as agricultural machinery is concerned, Canada has practically no competitors except the United States, and it is therefore, for her to make good her position in the Balkans at once."

Farm Implements.

"With regard to the special and immediate openings for Canadian manufacturers, we require all kinds of agricultural machinery and tools, for, as is well known, Roumania is primarily an agricultural country. For some years to come, too, as she has been practically denuded of cattle during the war, farming must largely consist in the cultivation of various cereals, for livestock is practically non-existent. While later, of course, cattle and horses, will be most welcome, what we require for the moment are ploughs, reapers, binders, threshers and other such implements."

"Roumania is fairly well provided with railways, but the war resulted in many of these falling into disrepair and in the loss of an immense amount of rolling stock. We are, therefore, in urgent need of engines, passenger and good cars and rails, and last but not least of motor lorries to run on the roads and maintain communication in districts not served by railways. Considering her wonderful railway system, I think Canada can help us a great deal in these respects. And I believe, to mention only two more items, that the great British Dominion can supply us with good and suitable boots and with the cheaper furs which are so necessary to the people of Roumania."

Stability.

"I recognize," went on M. Jonescu, "that trade cannot be fostered between two countries on a basis of charity or philanthropy. It is important, therefore, for Canadian manufacturers to remember that there is every reason to have confidence in the stability of my country and to realize that our resources make the Canadian Government safe in establishing credits with us. Such credits will lead to the regularization of the time and method of payment for goods supplied, and also make good the position of Canada in Roumania before the Central Powers have an opportunity of re-establishing themselves."

"Roumania has resources and assets which, instead of being less valuable, have in fact become more so as a result of the war. Thus, while many nations depend for their trade upon manufactured goods, the production of which is enormously effected by the present conditions of labor, my country has a natural wealth in commodities which are not only more in requisition than they have ever been before, but the prices of which are never likely to fall to their pre-war value. For example, there are our immense supplies of oil, the wells for the working of which are already producing from one-half to two-thirds of their pre-war output. And then there is our enormous agricultural wealth, which, with the assistance of Canadian machinery, will enable us to export greater quantities of grain to the starving world than has ever been the case before. And last, but not least, we have our forests, which are capable of supplying immense quantities of lumber of all kinds—lumber which will be required for reconstructional purposes in all the war-swept countries of Europe."

Confidence.

"For these reasons, therefore," said M. Jonescu, "although we may not which is already so well provided which we can send, to Canada, have much in the way of goods with most of the products in which we are rich, financiers and manufacturers need have no fear that Roumania will show herself underserving or unworthy of any confidence or trust which is placed in her."

HOW TO PROMOTE A REVIVAL BEST

Rev. J. G. Inkster Speaks on Subject at First Church

"We can promote a Revival," said Rev. J. G. Inkster in First Presbyterian Church last night. "Just as a company or a campaign can be promoted—provided we use the proper methods and means. A revival consists of two parts, the first part affects the church and church people, the second part affects the world and ungodly people. A revival must begin with church people, so I shall speak to them in this sermon."

"You can't promote a revival primarily by holding mass meetings, organizing committees, building tabernacles, gathering big choirs and calling in some big evangelistic company. These have their place and their function, but it is not primary. The very first thing to be done is for Christians to examine their hearts—for he who remembered the heart is the heart of religion. The head has its function, but there are plenty of people whose heads are sound, but whose hearts are very rotten."

"To get the heart right and develop the religious affections we must resort to an indirect process: for the laws of the heart are such that you can't sit down and say: Go to, let us love or let us hate. The way to produce the emotion of love is to fix the heart on some object which is lovely. In like manner, if the heart is fixed on objects which are ugly or which you dislike, hate will be engendered. Another aspect of the same law is: If you fix the heart on things to which the heart is averse deep feeling will be produced and you will hate and turn away from these things. That is the aspect of the laws which govern the heart of which I now wish to speak—a process which will surely promote a revival."

"Sit down, then, with pencil and notebook and fix your attention on some of your ugly sins and write them down. Sins such as ingratitude, lack of love to God, neglect of prayer, neglect of prayer, want of interest in your brethren, failure of family duties. Such sins as pride, levity, lying, cheating, hypocrisy, envy, bad temper, ill-will and such like. Write them down two or three times and in the process many more sins of omission and commission will suggest themselves—put them all down. And in the end you will have a piece of personal history which not only will make you feel better, but will suggest themselves—put them all down. And in the end you will have a piece of personal history which not only will make you feel better, but will suggest themselves—put them all down."

"Until this is done there can be no revival and to pretend there can be is a mockery and an insult to God. But when this is done, not only have you promoted a revival, the revival has begun, it is going on, and it will be a great revival."

There was a very large congregation, and Mrs. A. Willis sang most exquisitely with great feeling. The choir, "The Voice of the Wilderness," sang a large prayer meeting for the Gypsy Smith Mission was held subsequently.

CORRECTS MR. CROSS

To the Editor—I have to call your attention again to a misstatement of facts reported in your columns of the 18th inst. Mr. Cross stated at Dr. Tolmie's meeting that "the Federated Labor Party was formed not long ago. The first thing it did was to pass the celebrated Calgary resolution." The facts are that the Federated Labor Party was formed in February, 1918. The convention Mr. Cross refers to is the B.C. Federation of Labor convention in 1919, an international trades union organization, and the Federated Labor party was not represented there either directly or indirectly, and therefore could not endorse or adopt any of the resolutions passed there. The Federated Labor Party is not connected with the B.C. Federation of Labor in any way. The Federated Labor Party is a political organization, while the B.C. Federation of Labor is an industrial organization. Trusting you will find space for this correction. Yours truly,

HOME WORK.

To the Editor:—The explanation that has been given of the home work assigned to her pupils by a teacher in one of our public schools appears to be one of those explanations that does not quite explain.

Even though the questions assigned may have been a review of three weeks' work, it was a set of questions, the answers to which had all to be written out in one evening and handed in to the teacher the next day. No child of twelve years of age could write out intelligent answers to all those questions in two hours, and I doubt if all the work assigned could be done intelligently in four hours, and as the child had the use of the text book at home from which to copy the answers, it is difficult to understand what is to be gained by such an exercise. If these answers are made the sole basis of the pupils class standing it looks to me as though that method makes the home the real school and the teacher merely the examiner of home work.

Just as a teacher spending her time and energy in reading over hour after hour papers written out in that way, a good part of which may have been copied out of the text book. And fancy, further, a pupil's standing being made to depend solely upon the marks so given. It would take

DOES EVERYTHING THEY SAY IT WILL, ERICKSON STATES

All His Troubles Completely Overcome by Taking Tanlac

"Nearly every day for four months before I took Tanlac I couldn't eat but one meal a day and couldn't sleep good a single night," was the statement made to a Tanlac representative the other day by Frank Erickson, 301 Hastings West, Vancouver, B. C.

"My trouble started about six months ago," continued Mr. Erickson, "and for the past four months my stomach had been in the very worst sort of shape. My appetite was next to nothing, and tea and toast was about all that I attempted to eat, and the truth is I ate so little I hardly see how I kept alive, and even then I would have terrible pains in my stomach and gas would form so bad that I would bloat up as tight as a drum. Sometimes I would vomit up what little I had eaten, and often I had bad dizzy spells and was very nervous. I was troubled with an awful pain right across my back that would hurt so bad I could hardly stoop over to pick up anything, and at night, why I would roll and tumble so long that I forgot what it was to enjoy a good night's rest or sleep."

"This is the actual condition I was in when I began to take Tanlac, but now all my troubles have been completely overcome and I am as well and strong as I was six months ago, and if anything I am in better health. My appetite is so good that I can eat anything set before me and, in fact, I can't get enough to eat, and my stomach is in such fine condition that I never have a touch of indigestion or gas, or nausea after I have eaten a meal. My nerves are as steady as they ever were, and sleep, why, I'm almost asleep by the time I hit the bed, and when I get up I feel fine. The pain in my back has gone, and I don't have any more dizzy spells like I used to, and I am as strong as I ever was. Tanlac can be depended on for it is a reliable medicine, and it will do everything they say it will, if not more."

the pen of a Dickens to adequately describe such a piece of ridiculous tomfoolery.

But the worst and most serious feature of such methods of teaching is the tax it makes on the nervous energy of the child. Everybody acknowledges that mental work is more taxing to the nervous energy than physical work. It is now accepted as a general rule that strong men, fully grown, with their physical powers fully developed, ought not to be required to work longer than eight hours a day. How then, can young growing girls of ten or twelve be expected to do five hours of mental work in school daily and two or more hours of the same kind at home without serious injury to their nervous systems? A school girl's days ought to be the happiest of her life. Under such a method it becomes the "ceaseless mill of a galley slave."

A girl of twelve years ought to have no home-work. If she does five hours of good, honest work in school the brain and the nerves should not be further taxed for that day. The best educational and medical authorities now acknowledge this and are pleading earnestly that these medieval ideas and methods be driven from our schools and be replaced by methods more modern and practical. The methods that prevail in the schools of this city and province are largely the results of the examination system. So long as teacher and pupils are judged by examination results and so long as the salaries of teachers are made to depend to a considerable extent upon examination results just so long will teachers follow those methods which are best calculated to produce such results. For these methods, then, trustees are more to blame than teachers.

PETROGRAD INVESTED.

Apparently the anti-Bolshevik forces commanded by General Yudenich are about to capture Petrograd which is reported to be closely invested. This development will be of less material than moral importance, for the former Russian capital lost much of its significance and standing after the fall of the Romanoff dynasty. Since that time Moscow has become in fact, as it always was in the essential factors, the real heart of Russia.

Petrograd, brought into existence by Peter the Great as the place of residence of the Czars, was merely the centre of Russian officialdom, a purely artificial structure which never faithfully reflected the character and tendencies of the Russian people. In many ways it was almost as German as it was Russian, not only on account of its proximity to the Baltic provinces where many Germans lived, and its convenient land and sea communications with Berlin, but because of the intimate ties between the Romanoffs and the Hohenzollerns, which were visible in the numerous German officials to be found there and their influence upon Russian policy.

It would have been better if Prince Lvoff and Kerensky had transferred the seat of the new Government to Moscow immediately after the revolution, instead of remaining there until the overthrow of the Provisional Government by the Bolsheviks. Just as it was a breeding place of German intrigue against the Allies during the reign of the Czar, it proved a fertile field for the Bolshevik conspiracy led by Lenin and financed and otherwise assisted by the Germans. It was the German navy and the naval hands at Kronstadt who first succumbed to this conspiracy, and who afterwards supplied the force which, with fixed bayonets, abolished the Constituent Assembly because the majority of its members, returned in elections authorized by the Bolsheviks themselves, were opposed to the Lenin faction.

Yudenich's threat to the Bolshevik Government, while more spectacular, is much less formidable than that of General Denikin who is advancing towards Moscow from the south. The Denikin movement is a real menace, for if it should cover another hundred miles towards the Russian capital, Lenin, Trotsky and their various Commissaries would have to flee to some remote corner of Russia, leaving their dupes to their fate. It would not be the first time Lenin had done this. In 1905, after the collapse of the Russian revolutionary movement, he fled to Switzerland and remained there until the despised bourgeoisie, under Miliukoff and Rodziako, brought about the downfall of the Romanoffs in March, 1917.

COALITIONIST RETAINS RUSHOLME.

Captain J. H. Thorpe, a Conservative-Coalitionist, is the victor in the by-election for the Rusholme division of Manchester, a contest occasioned by the death of R. B. Stoker, a prominent shipping man, who headed the poll in December last with a majority of 8,748 votes over Liberal and Labor combined. Until the figures have been received, however, it is difficult to comment on the result, for the simple reason that a number of factors—apart from the significance of a four-cornered appeal—entered into the contest.

It had been hoped by the Asquith wing of British Liberals that its candidate, W. M. R. Pringle, would capture the seat on the split vote and by virtue of the hard work he had put in since his nomination. At the height of the campaign, however, the successful settlement of the railway strike was looked upon as a new feather in the cap of the Premier and a fresh argument for the return of Captain Thorpe. The successful candidate, it should be noted, declared himself to be an out and out supporter of the Coalition Government and of Mr. Lloyd George, "because it comprises the best men of all parties and has shown, by steering the country through the most terrible period in its history to victory, that it is a real live Government with a real live leader."

Failure on the part of the Liberal and Labor parties to agree to a compromise in the matter of a candidate also may have had something to do with the result. Mr. Pringle's supporters were incensed at the action of the Labor party in refusing to allow a clear field as a quid pro quo for the support given to Mr. Henderson by the Liberals at Widnes—without which, by the way, the Labor Leader's triumph would not have been possible.

Supporters of Captain Crewdson, the Nationalist Party's candidate, expected to get the votes of the high-and-dry Tories to whom it was anticipated his declaration against the "old gang" in politics would appeal. At least, the Nationalist candidate surely provided an exhaust for that section of the old Conservative school which never could settle down to Lloyd Georgian leadership, no matter under what banner the little Welshman might aspire to lead them. Apparently, however, the return of Captain Thorpe was assured merely by a too greatly divided appeal to the electorate and, in consequence, a completely split anti-coalitionist vote.

IMPORTANT WORKS.

The diminution of shipbuilding has thrown a large number of men out of employment. The consummation of the community scheme, sponsored by the heads of the Foundation and Chelberg companies, may cause a revival of the industry, but this is only in the development stage, and it is important that other means of absorbing our surplus labor should be found in the near future.

In his platform, published in The Times to-day, Dr. Tolmie calls attention to the contracts for the construction of two steel ships here following the representations of himself and Mr. McIntosh at Ottawa and the drydock project. Both of these enterprises, one actually begun and the other announced before there was any prospect of an election in Victoria, should provide considerable relief, and although Mr. Barnard and his supporters appear to consider them of little importance, it will be noticed that they are offering no tangible alternatives.

Mr. Barnard calls the drydock enterprise "election bait," but if he does not know it, his local adherents certainly do know that Victoria had been striving for many months with her utmost vigor to induce the Government to build the dock here and that among the communications which went to Ottawa in connection with the matter was one from the local Liberal Association. The fight for the drydock between Victoria, pressed by Dr. Tolmie and Mr. McIntosh, and Vancouver, was won before Mr. Barnard dreamed of becoming a candidate for Victoria. These things may look negligible to Mr. Barnard, but they are mighty important to this city, especially at this time.

G. W. V. A. HOME.

It is to be hoped the campaign for funds for a new home for the G. W. V. A. will be entirely successful. If there is any place in Canada where a branch of that Association should be suitably housed it is Victoria in which the G. W. V. A., now a Dominion-wide organization with a membership roll of some 300,000, had its birth. The circumstances attending the origin of the pioneer soldier association of Canada were interestingly narrated in the recent military edition of The Times by one of the founders, and the readers of the article must have been highly impressed by the growth and progress of the organization in the face of considerable difficulty. The headquarters of the G. W. V. A. and similar associations should be worthy of the movements with which they are associated and valuable assets of the communities in which they are established.

It is rather amusing to note the names of some of the gentlemen who are contributing to the gaiety of the election campaign by calling the daily press all the bad names they can think of. Several of them have been frequent visitors to both newspaper offices in search of free publicity for themselves or for movements of various kinds with which they were connected, and we may be sure that after the present campaign is over they will call again many times with the same objects in view—wearing the same ingratiating smiles and with the same unctuous expressions of their convictions of the "great power for good" the daily newspaper press is.

SIR ADAM BECK'S LEADERSHIP.

(London, Ont., Free Press.)

Rumor has it that Sir Adam Beck will be accorded an acclamation in London. The Liberals have made no move to oppose him, and it is not apprehended that labor will place a candidate in the field. This tribute to Sir Adam is remarkable. He has always been a fighting public man. He has carried no favors, and has extended none. His policy has been that of undivided public service. He saw the thing to do, and he did it. He put into it his wonderful fund of energy. He obtained results. For petty politics he had no taste. He kept partyism out of the hydro-electric undertaking. The transmission plant, upon which millions of dollars have been invested, was built up by a competent staff under Sir Adam's leadership, without regard for the politics of any member thereof.

As we have said, Sir Adam is a fighter. His hardest fights have been with the private corporations. To them he has never given ground. If to-day the publicly-owned hydro power is three times in volume that of the privately-owned, it is because Sir Adam has overtaken and passed the corporations who believed they had secured a monopoly of this power for themselves. In every city and town in the country he has had to fight these influences. Even when the public has seemed apathetic, Sir Adam has warned them up to the situation and has won over his opponents. In a fair, open scrap he has never been beaten.

Nowhere has he been so bitterly opposed as in this city. He early invited the antagonism of a group of politicians, and these have camped upon his trail without exception. Invariably he has been victorious, but yet the fight went on. At length, it seems, his enemies have decided that the game is up. Sir Adam's armor affords no opening for his antagonists. Willing, they may still be, it is doubtful, however, all the signs point to a readiness to concede to the redoubtable Beck the honors of the day.

LARGE VOTE IS REPORTED IN ONTARIO GENERAL ELECTION

Little this morning, is that the Conservative Government of Sir William Hearst will be returned with a largely decreased majority, due mostly to the incursions of the United Farmers of Ontario.

Referendum.

As to the referendum, the opinion is considerably mixed. It is believed that the voting all over the province will be a general "yes" or "no" to the four questions, and that the split ballot voter has been in most cases won over to one side or the other as the result of the conventions of the last week or two. Both sides of the prohibition issue express the greatest confidence, and the leaders of all parties in the general election are likewise in high hopes of success.

The polls will close throughout the province at 5 p.m. standard time.

FALL OF KRONSTADT HAS OPENED WAY

and the road running eastward from Volodga, which closely follows the south bank of the Neva, was destroyed at a point south of Lake Ladoga. Bolshevik reinforcements which Trotsky announced were being rushed to the defence of the city, must now be detained a full day's march from Petrograd, and if approaching from the south must fight their way into Petrograd through serious opposition, as is shown by the destruction of a Bolshevik division in the vicinity of Krasnoe-Selo.

Kronstadt and Ships

Nothing is known of the fate of the Baltic fleet, the remnants of which had been lurking in the shelter of Kronstadt, but, as seems possible from the dispatches, the fortress fell not as a result of assault and landing but by surrender from within, the spirit of the garrison is probably shared by the ship's crew's composed of the same elements.

The fall of Kronstadt is vastly important not only strategically, but also for its effect upon the morale of the Bolsheviks. It had been considered impregnable to attack from sea or land and its sailor garrison had been from the outset of the revolution the stout supporters of the Bolshevik cause. Now that its formidable guns are silent, the Allied cruisers and destroyers can pass further up the bay toward Petrograd, about twenty miles away, and can support the advance of the troops along the coast to points directly in the rear of Bolshevik forces defending Petrograd from the south.

GARY STILL STANDS FOR OPEN SHOP

changed to-day, the initial day of the fifth week of the walkout.

The only statement relative to the strike came from the Carnegie Steel Company. This report declared the Homestead Works had turned out 35,000 tons of ingots last week, this being only a few thousand tons under the record week of 1918, when production was hastened because of the war. Other mills of the concern were said to be operating at nearly 100 per cent capacity.

Chicago District.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Conditions in the steel mills of the Chicago district have improved to such an extent that to-day, beginning the fifth week of the strike, production was seventy-five per cent of normal, according to company officials.

Union officials said their reports showed that inexperienced workers were attempting unsuccessfully to fill the places of the veterans who remain on strike.

The force of Federal troops sent to Gary two weeks ago was still further reduced to-day. Only about 600 soldiers remain in the Gary section.

Increases.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The increase in the earnings per hour of employees in eleven principal industries of the United States in the last six years was greatest in the iron and steel industry, according to a statement made public to-day by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Labor.

While in some departments the pay was greater than in others, in all departments collectively the hourly wage of steel and iron mill workers in 1919 is 221 per cent of the hourly wage in 1913.

The smallest increase in earnings were those in the mill work industry, where the increase of 1919 over 1913 was but fifty per cent. In the other nine industries for which figures were given the increases varied from fifty-two to ninety-four per cent. These included cotton, woolen, silk, clothing, underwear, shoes, furniture and cigar factory workers.

MOTOR FATALITY ON MALAHAT DRIVE

about 1 o'clock Sunday morning, Clarence Ballance, who had a miraculous escape from death, lies in St. Joseph's Hospital recovering from shock and bruises, but will be able to be about again in two or three days.

In a Studebaker (8919) driven by his brother, Clement Ballance and accompanied by Thos. H. Dand, the party was proceeding from Nanaimo to Victoria. Near the Goldstream Bridge the car skidded and turned over the bank, dropping about thirty feet into its stream below, with Clarence Ballance pinned underneath in the water. After a valiant struggle he was rescued, the other men having escaped uninjured.

All day yesterday the two cars

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Daily Times, October 20, 1894.

Only four of the Victoria sailing fleet are still at sea. The sailing season of 1895 may be truthfully said to be young yet, but there are owners who are already arranging for their Indian crews. It has just been learned that the headless body found on the beach at Clover Point three months ago was that of William Henley, who was drowned in Sooke River several weeks before that.

A runaway accident which it is feared will prove fatal, occurred on Carey Road this morning. The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Luskcombe.

The Legation said. Exclusively Lettish troops were holding the front from Riga to the Bolshevik front near Dwinsk. The legation denied emphatically the German statement that no German troops assisted Colonel Avaloff-Bermond's attack on Riga, excepting those who had joined him against the orders of the German Government.

The prisoners taken by the Letts were German soldiers of the force under General von der Goltz.

D. W. Griffith, it is reported, is now backed by a wealthy Eastern sportsman, Robert Smathers, and will not only build a studio near New York, but go to Europe to make another big picture.

"The Big Four" of the screen—Pickford, Griffith, Chaplin and Fairbanks, have secured Griffith's most recent great work, "Broken Blossoms," for exhibition throughout the country.

BIG CROWD HEARS LABOR SPEAKERS

Mr. Barnard's Supporters
Strongly Censure Union
Government

An enthusiastic meeting of Union Government opponents more than filled the Crystal Theatre on Saturday evening to hear Thomas A. Barnard, labor's candidate in the coming by-election; George Little, a returned soldier, and Tom Richardson, a former member of the British Parliament. The speeches of these gentlemen consisted chiefly of an arraignment of the Union Government and its policies and strong censure of the press, which, Mr. Richardson declared, "had lost all sense of morality."

"It would be a tremendous victory," he asserted, "if the people of the Empire could only intelligently appreciate the situation represented in the terrible, tragic fact that for the past ten years there has been a manufactured press, made to order, circulating 24 days in the year and printing a minimum of truth and a maximum of falsehoods. The people should rise and exercise their intelligence and resent this insult, which takes the form of fabrication, wilful and designed, printed in our newspapers that have lost all sense of morality, and whose hypocrisy is colossal."

Many Millionaires.
The war, Mr. Richardson continued, had created 150 millionaires in Canada. According to the income tax returns, however, only forty men whose incomes were more than $100,000 had paid the tax in 1917. This fact, he declared, was one of the stupendous problems confronting democracy to-day. The soldiers and sailors, he claimed, had been exploited for the benefit of the profiteers who had failed even to pay their income tax.

"I'm not pro-German," Mr. Richardson announced, "I feel that there is an awakened conscience and a quickened intelligence among the workers, and that there is a serious danger that the Empire may lose its honored prestige unless something is done."

Mr. Richardson advocated a labor government for Canada on the ground that in Australia a labor government had been the cause of creating old-age pensions, among other social reforms.

George Little expressed strong resentment at being called "red" by Dr. Tolmie's supporters, in spite of the fact that he had helped to keep the Union Jack flying at Ypres. Of one of the Doctor's supporters he cried, "as big as he is and small as I am, I'll meet him on any stage in Victoria for three or ten rounds and I'll take the yellow streak out of his back and show that while I am no Red I can see it occasionally. I'm a Cornishman and my family's been fighting for a thousand years."

Mud-Slinging.
"I have made an investigation, and I am pretty sure that my character will stand as close a scrutiny as the character of those slimy-talking gentlemen," asserted Mr. Barnard. "If I become anyone making nasty insinuations and slinging slime at my back, I'll be all right for these guys to shoot off their faces about me, but let them come out in the open. Never was such a conglomeration of parties and classes behind a candidate," Mr. Barnard observed. "Whether I go over or under I'm in good company either way."

So great was the crowd at the Crystal Theatre meeting that an overflow gathering was held in the Boiler-makers' Hall.

BIG CONGREGATIONS HEARD REV. A. ESLER

Large and appreciative congregations assembled morning and evening yesterday to hear Rev. Alexander Esler, M. A., at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Victoria, West. The occasion was the anniversary of the founding of the church in that section of the city twenty-eight years ago by the Rev. Donald MacRae, D. D., who after his retirement from active service six years ago was succeeded in the pastorate by the Rev. H. N. Maclean, M. A., Ph.D.

In the morning Mr. Esler, in preaching a most suitable and inspiring sermon said: "Your former pastor was true to the Gospel, as is your present pastor, who is recognized as a true defender of the faith once for all delivered unto the saints," and this church stands, and shall continue to stand as a beacon light upon this hill."

The children who listened to Mr. Esler in the afternoon were as attentive as the older people at the regular services. The Christian Endeavor met after the evening service and Mr. Esler, who at one time was president of the C. E. Union of Ontario, took up the C. E. pledge and gave the members an insight into its meaning and significance which few of them never had before.

The service of praise led by a well-trained choir was dignified and uplifting. The anthems were well rendered.

To-night a social gathering will be held, at which Mr. Esler will give an address on the Christian Home. Capt. E. H. Martin, C. M. G., R. N., will preside. The Ladies' Aid Society will serve refreshments, and a programme on which appears the names of several popular soloists will be rendered.

A BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Pudding Stick.

Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
(By Howard K. Garis.)

Rattle and bang! Bang and rattle. That was the noise Uncle Wiggily heard out in the kitchen of his hollow stump bungalow one morning.

"Nurse Jane surely must be making something," said the bunny rabbit gentleman to himself. "I wonder if it's pie or cake?"

For, almost always, when the muskrat lady housekeeper made rattle-bang noises among the pots, pans and dishes in the kitchen it meant she was baking or boiling or frying or stewing or something.

"Guess I'll take a look," said Uncle Wiggily to himself, as he hopped down stairs, for he had just gotten up out of bed and had not, as yet, eaten his breakfast.

"What are you making, Nurse Jane?" he asked the muskrat lady, as he opened the kitchen door.

"I'm making a rice pudding, Wiggily," answered Nurse Jane. "And I wish you'd go and get me—"

"I know what you want!" cried the rabbit gentleman, with a low and polite bow of his pink, twinkling nose. "You want me to go to the eight and seven-cent store and get you some raisins for the rice pudding!" He was just about to reach down his tail, silk hat from the mantel shelf, when Nurse Jane laughed, curled her whiskers most fashionably around the back of her neck, and she said:

"Not so fast, Uncle Wiggily. I have all the raisins I need for this rice pudding. But after you have your breakfast I wish you'd go out in the woods and get me a pudding stick."

"What's a pudding stick?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"It's a long, thin, smooth stick to stir a pudding with," answered Nurse Jane. "You know when you make a rice pudding you let the top crust get nice and brown. Then you stir it in and let some new brown come on top, and then you stir that in. It makes the pudding better to stir in the brown top, and to do it right I need a pudding stick. Of course, I could use a spoon, but a pudding stick would be better."

"Then you shall have it," said Uncle Wiggily.

Quickly he ate his breakfast—yet not so quickly as to get indigestion or be impolite. Quickly he ate his breakfast, of honey cakes with maple sugar gravy sprinkled over the top, and then, taking his red vest and his

IN WOMAN'S DOMAIN

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Todd and Mrs. Clifford Bales left on Friday to spend a few days in Seattle and Tacoma.

Mrs. George Ridgway has returned to her home in this city after spending the past few days in Vancouver visiting her mother, Mrs. E. Betterton.

H. C. Hall, M.P.P., left to-day for the Mainland en route for Calgary, where he has to attend to legal business. He will return to Victoria on Monday next.

Rev. Alex. Essler, M.A., of Vancouver, who is assisting at the anniversary services at St. Paul's, Victoria West, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Ross, 1613 Earl Street.

The many friends of Mrs. H. A. Whillans, of Gorge Road, will regret to hear of the bereavement she has sustained in the death of her mother, Mrs. Dunlop, of Toronto, who passed away at Vancouver General Hospital on October 16.

Nursing Sister Mrs. Hussey of this city, who recently returned from overseas service, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Norris, in Vancouver, for a few days, prior to leaving for New York, where she has accepted the position of matron in one of the hospitals.

Miss Lorraine, who has been conducting an Academy of Dancing on Pandora Avenue with conspicuous success for some time past, has planned to hold a ball to-morrow (Tuesday) evening to mark the opening of the winter season. Miss Thain's orchestra has been engaged for the occasion, and a programme of up-to-date dance music has been arranged.

At the home of W. H. Grant, 426 Michigan Street, on Saturday afternoon the marriage was solemnized of his daughter, Olive Edna, to Alex. Victor Clark, of the Clark Advertising Service, of this city. Rev. Dr. Campbell performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives only. Mr. and Mrs. Clark left on the afternoon boat en route for Portland, where the honeymoon will be spent.

Lieut. E. W. Oland, R. C. N., and Mrs. Oland (nee Denise Harris) left yesterday afternoon en route for England, where Lieut. Oland has been recalled by the Admiralty. A big gathering of friends of the young couple assembled at the C. P. R. wharf to bid them "Godspeed." It will be remembered that Lieut. Oland was recently decorated by the Prince of Wales with the Distinguished Service Conduct Medal, awarded in recognition of his work in connection with the rescue of men from a stricken liner in the North Sea.

Col. and Mrs. A. W. Jones and Mrs. Jack Rithet, captain of the ladies' team which participated in the golf tournament at Seattle on Thursday, were among the Victorians who have been spending the week-end at the Seattle Golf and Country Club. They were among the guests at the luncheon given on Thursday by the Seattle Club, and at the elaborate tea given in the afternoon by Mrs. Trafford Hutsen. Mrs. Hutsen and Mrs. Josiah Collins had charge of the tea table, which had a large bowl of blue hydrangeas as a centre ornament, and Mrs. E. A. Strout and Mrs. Archibald J. Flaken assisted. A competing team from Vancouver was expected to join the tournament but was unable to do so.

About fifty members of the Ladies' Musical Club attended the first of the "musical at home" of the winter season, held on Saturday at the home of the President, Mrs. Nash, Pemberton Road. Chrysanthemums of a lovely copper shade were used in the arrangement of the drawing room, and in the decorations of the dining-room, where delicious afternoon tea was served by the hostess. A pleasing musical programme arranged by Miss Hilda Harris was rendered during the afternoon, the artists contributing being Mrs. Adorf, mezzo-soprano, a pupil of the well-known English singer, Plunkett Green; Mrs. Godson, soprano, and the following pianists: Miss Marian Heming, Miss Irene Long, Miss Lucille Hall (a pupil of Miss Heming), and Miss George.

Local friends of the bride will be interested in the following announcement from the Vancouver World of Saturday's date: "A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cooney, Sea Island, on Wednesday last, when Mrs. Cooney's sister, Miss Mabel Olivia Buckingham was united in marriage to Ernest Elbert Sumner. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion with flowers and greenery, the ceremony being performed under an arch of unfrozen, and I just had to wiggle around to show how glad I was, I'm sorry I can't be a pudding stick for you, Nurse Jane, but next summer I'll come and catch a lot of bad biting bugs and mosquitoes for you."

"Oh, thank you!" said the muskrat lady. "What shall I do far a pudding stick?"

"I'll go out and get you one that won't be a stiff, frozen snake this time," said Uncle Wiggily. And he did and Nurse Jane made a lovely pudding and the kind "snake" was given a little for himself. Then he went to sleep under Uncle Wiggily's kitchen floor until next summer, and after that Nurse Jane was never afraid of good snakes.

And if the potato masher doesn't hammer the frying pan, and make so much noise that it wakes up the alarm clock, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the Squiggle bug.

GEN. CURRIE TO OPEN CHILDREN'S WARD

"Silver Tea" at St. Joseph's Hospital To-morrow Afternoon

General Sir Arthur Currie will formally open the new children's ward at St. Joseph's Hospital to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, on behalf of his son, Master Garnet Currie, whose name the Sisters wish to have associated with the ward. In connection with the formal ceremony there will be a musical programme, arranged by Mrs. D. E. Campbell, while afternoon tea will be served.

Public Invited.

The public is cordially invited to attend the opening, in connection with which there will be a "silver shower" to assist in the meeting of incidental expenses for minor furnishings such as bed linen, blankets, towels, etc. As previously noted there are two wards, separate toilets and bathrooms, and a diet kitchen in connection with this new department of the hospital, the main children's ward having seven cots and seven small beds, while the smaller adjoining room, which is to be used for the bigger boys, has three beds and two cots. A big range has just been installed in the diet kitchen, and the major furnishing will be complete and all the renovations carried out before Tuesday.

Visitors are asked to enter by the Humboldt Street entrance, where the reception committee will welcome them and direct them to the children's ward, which is on the main floor in the north wing and has been very largely furnished through the generosity of friends of the hospital and lovers of children.

ANNIVERSARY OF TRAFALGAR TUESDAY

Navy League to Make Public Appeal For Funds To-morrow

To-morrow is Trafalgar Day—the anniversary of the famous naval battle in which Nelson gave his life and the British fleet won the most spectacular victory of its career. To commemorate the anniversary the Navy League will hold a tag day throughout the Province, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the carrying on of the League's work in the interest of seamen and the raising and maintenance of Boys' Naval Brigades.

In connection with the appeal, H. F. Heimising, Provincial Secretary of the Navy League, has issued the following letter to the public:

"One hundred and fourteen years ago to-morrow the famous signal, 'England expects that every man will do his duty,' was made from Admiral Lord Nelson's flagship H.M.S. Victory.

"Encouraged by this and following the example of their heroic leader, the men of the British navy there and then made sure for the British Empire the sea supremacy which she holds to-day and must continue to hold if the British Empire is to continue to prosper. Some may say why do we celebrate Nelson Day? What interest has Canada in the battle of Trafalgar?

"No thinking Canadian would deny that such battles as Jutland or Falkland Islands were of some importance to Canada's national life.

"It is quite conceivable, however, that there are people who cannot connect the fate of Canada's existence as a free nation and a sea battle fought in 1805 in which no Canadians took a part. Nationality is based to a large extent upon tradition, and without tradition Canada has no existence as a nation.

"There is no future for Canada if Canada has no past any more than there would be life in a tree without roots. There are of course traditions that would be better to forget, and again others which we would do well to preserve as they give health and vigor to our national life.

"Britannia, and when I say Britannia, I include Canadians, have noble traditions to live up to in the memory of Waterloo and Trafalgar, and I do not think it is too much to say that the heroism and endurance displayed by our gallant sailors and soldiers during the past four and a half years was inspired and stimulated as much by national memories of heroic struggles of the past as by the conviction that they were fighting for righteousness and liberty.

"Without Trafalgar there could have been no Waterloo, just the same as to-day, without Jutland, Coronel or Falkland Islands, there could have been no decisive victory in France. The Navy League of Canada is an organization which has for its aim and objects the bettering of conditions for the sailor afloat and ashore, the welfare of his dependents, the training of Canadian boys for Canadian sailors to man Canadian ships and the educating of both old and young to appreciate the work and worth of our sailors.

"None of this work can be carried on without funds, and to-morrow the Navy League is holding its annual appeal for support, and you can obey Nelson's famous signal by giving your financial support and by going to the office of the Navy League and joining up as a member. You can then at the close of the day say with Lord Nelson, 'Thank God I have done my duty.'"

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE

TO NURSE'S MEMORY

Tablet Inveiled to Miss Gladys Wake at St. Paul's Church

Deeply impressive in its solemnity was the memorial service to the late Nursing Sister Gladys Maude Mary Wake, held last night at St. Paul's Royal Naval Station and Garrison Church, Esquimalt. The edifice was filled with a huge congregation, including many ex-service men in uniform and nursing sisters who availed themselves of the opportunity of paying tribute to a brave comrade who gave her life in the sacred cause of duty. So large was the attendance that seating accommodation proved insufficient and many were forced to stand throughout the impressive service.

The rector, the Rev. W. Baughman, officiated at the service, and the unveiling ceremony was performed by Col. the Rev. G. H. Andrews, who was chaplain at the hospital at Etaples at the time of the air raid in which Miss Wake lost her life. In his dedicatory address Col. Andrews paid eloquent and moving tribute to the young nurse and to the work of the nursing sisterhood over the cost of their lives, offered such magnificent inspiration to all.

Musical appropriate to the occasion was sung, Mr. Ellis rendering the solo "Wings of Night." A special

CRUEL RETORT.

A good story is told of a famous author who had the misfortune to be seated next to a terrible boring old lady at a friend's dinner party.

"Do you know, Mr. Blank," she said, gushingly, "my sister was intending to sail on the Lusitania, but was prevented at the last moment; wasn't that fortunate now?"

"I really couldn't say," replied the author. "I never knew your sister."

Through hard-times and good-times—perhaps a pioneer and builder of your community; isn't he deserving of your entire co-operation?

Some may have deserted him for others; but it's good to remember your old friend—yes, mighty good to trade at the same store where you can safely send the kiddies. Think it over next time you want something in a hurry—where do you send? Then, why not patronize him all the while.

TO TELL COMMISSION OF HORSE RACING SITUATION HERE

Steps to place the horse racing situation in Victoria and on Vancouver Island before the Butherford Racing Commission when it comes to Victoria next Saturday will likely be taken during the week by members of the B. C. Agricultural Association, which, before the war, had charge of most of the horse racing here at the Willows.

Alderman Sangster, secretary of the Association, to-day received notification by telegram of the sessions of the Commission to be held here. He said that steps would be taken during the next two days to see that the situation here was properly placed before the Commission.

FAMOUS B. C. FARM IS ON THE MARKET

Coldstream Property to Be Disposed Of; Canadian Purchasers Preferred

The celebrated Coldstream Farm near Vernon is to be sold, and Mr. E. A. Lundy, the personal representative of its owners, has come to Canada to arrange for its sale. The farm, which was established and developed by Lord Aberdeen, subsequently passed into other hands, chief of whom are Viscount Cowdray and James Buchanan, and is among the numerous properties of various kinds in different parts of the world, which these wealthy interests are disposing of in order to concentrate their capital at home, where Britain's resources are now being mobilized to ensure her recovery from the war and the restoration of her finances to their old-time stability.

Mr. Lundy, who is now in Victoria, says it is the desire of Lord Cowdray and Mr. Buchanan that the Coldstream property be sold to Canadians, and it is his intention to give the investors of this country every opportunity to acquire it before turning elsewhere. The property is one of the finest of its kind in America. It comprises 13,000 acres with full equipment, offering ideal facilities for fruit growing, stock raising, dairying and other forms of agricultural activity. It has more than 800 acres of bearing fruit trees and the estimate of the crop this year is some 2,500 tons. The owners, who are well known among the wealthiest men of England, intend to dispose of the property at an exceptionally low figure, feeling confident that in doing so they are providing a very attractive opportunity for the investment of Canadian capital.

LIVESTOCK MEN ASK VICTORIA TO RE-ELECT MINISTER

Livestock breeders of Canada assembled in Toronto to-day telegraphed the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, their regret on learning that he is opposed in his by-election here.

"The Eastern Canada Livestock Union here assembled send greetings," they said in their telegram.

"We regret to learn that labor is opposing the agriculturist interests' unanimous choice for Minister. The industry from east to west without a single exception approves of your appointment. This important department needs the administrative ability and energy we know you can give it.

"We trust that the electors of Victoria will realize as we do the necessity of your return by an overwhelming majority.

CAMPAIGN BEGINS FINAL LAP WITH TWO CANDIDATES

Interesting Week in Sight
With Election Meetings of Both Parties

As Big Ben in the City Hall tower struck two o'clock this afternoon, Capt. H. W. R. Moore, returning of floor, reached for his hat.

"I think we will adjourn," he said. "I declare the nominations closed."

Only two candidates were nominated, the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, and Thomas A. Barnard, the representative of the Federated Labor Party, who is opposing him.

Besides Capt. Moore, his assistant and newspaper reporters, there was no one in the council chambers when the nominations were closed.

With the nominations closed, the federal by-election campaign, which has been extraordinarily strenuous so far because of the efforts put forth by the labor party to defeat the Cabinet Minister, enters on its last week. The election takes place next Monday.

Dr. Tolmie did not appear in person before the returning officer. His nomination papers were brought to the City Hall at 12.15 o'clock by Joshua Kingham, H. W. Grahame and Frank Higgins, K.C. Mr. Higgins was formally appointed as Dr. Tolmie's agent.

In the papers, the Minister was described as "veterinary surgeon" living on Cloverdale Avenue, Saanich.

Mr. Barnard Arrives.

Mr. Barnard himself came up with his nomination papers shortly before one o'clock. He was accompanied by E. W. Ellis, his campaign manager, and E. S. Woodward. Mr. Ellis was appointed Mr. Barnard's agent. Mr. Barnard in his papers describes himself as a "steam engineer" of 1118 Hamilton Street, New Westminster, B. C.

"V.C." Colonel to Speak
The Hon. S. F. Tolmie and his Unionist supporters will hold no public meetings to-night or to-morrow, as workers will be engaged on committee work at the headquarters, 1317 Government Street.

Arrangements, however, are being completed for the big meeting of the campaign on Wednesday night in the Royal Victoria Theatre, when Lieut.-Col. Cyrus Peck, V.C., M.P., will speak for the Minister of Agriculture. Mayor Porter will occupy the chair and the other speakers will be Dr. Tolmie, J. C. McIntosh, M.P., and Sergt.-Major Mee, the trench commander of Mr. Barnard, who left the opposition camp at the end of the week because Mr. Barnard had placed his resignation in the hands of a small coterie of local labor men.

Lebor Meeting to-night.
Rev. J. S. Woodsworth advertised as "the man from Winnipeg" who became famous during the strike there last summer, is billed as the feature of the Barnard meeting in the Crystal Theatre to-night. Mr. Barnard will also speak, while "Sandy" Watson will preside. Tomorrow night J. W. Connell, ex-M.P.P. of Saskatchewan, and W. E. Trotter, of the Vancouver Typographical Union, will speak at the Crystal Theatre. Mrs. Nellie Litchfield will be in the chair. Rev. Mr. Woodsworth, Pte. McLernan and Mr. Barnard will also speak to-morrow night in the George Jay School.

Replies to Attacks on Chinese
Chinese of Victoria, through H. Hastings, of the Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association, in a statement to The Times, reply to some of the attacks on them by Thomas A. Barnard in his labor platform speeches as "Chinks" that live in surroundings that are propagating grounds for tuberculosis and other preventable diseases.

"The implication is that tuberculosis and other preventable plagues originate in Chinatown," says Mr. Hastings. "We beg emphatically to protest against such a false statement, and deny that any diseases originate in Chinatown easier than in other parts of the city, or that Chinatown is any less healthy."

"The Chinese had an inquiry made by Dr. Arthur G. Price, medical health officer, into the health situation.

"We might mention in the deaths and diseases reported from Chinatown are included at least twenty per cent. from outside parts," explained Mr. Hastings. "Men on Vancouver Island who come down when ill to enter the Chinese Free Hospital, which only exists in this city, and also men who come in from as far as the Cariboo and Eastern Canada to await their steamer to return to China. The actual Chinatown population according to the statistics obtained during the war-time registration was said to be about 4,000, including about 400 women and 400 children, and we understand that the population of Victoria as a whole, including all races, according to last year's Board of Health report was put down as a little over 37,000. This apportions the populations as 33,000 white people and 4,000 Chinese."

Lack Proper Facilities
"As to tuberculosis, the Chinese death rate is higher (most of these cases are imported from other parts and are contracted mainly in working at mines) because of want of facilities to cure it in its incipient stage. Special tuberculosis hospitals are not as freely accessible to the Chinese as to the white population."

"We most emphatically protest against the habit of making wild and unsubstantiated statements regarding Chinese for political purposes, and in order to perpetuate a prejudice which we consider is unjustifiable, and certainly damaging to the high reputation which the British enjoy in China for their sense of justice and honorable conduct. We are so confident in the comparative (as against other parts of the city) healthiness of Chinatown that we request that in future the city publish parallel columns of death statistics for Chinese and for others."

Gives Statistics.

Dr. Price in his reply gives statistics collected from certificates for burials at Ross Bay and the Chinese cemeteries and from the list of those bodies removed from the city for burial elsewhere. Dr. Price's figures from January 1 to September 30, 1919, are:

Causes of Death of Chinese Reported in Victoria.	Chinese	White
Acute infectious diseases excluding pulmonary influenza	0	4
Pulmonary diseases including influenza and pneumonia	17	63
Tuberculosis	7	12
Circulatory diseases	5	41
Kidney diseases	1	20
Diseases of digestive organs	1	23
Diseases of nervous system	3	39
Diseases of bone	0	4
Cancerous diseases	2	40
General diseases	0	5
Old age	0	13
Invariability at birth	0	40
Accidents and coroner's cases	5	29
	41	372

Refrains From Politics.

"You ask me to give my general observations on infectious diseases in Chinatown during the year," says Dr. Price. "I may state that with the exception of cases of influenza during the epidemic which were reported, no other acute infectious disease of any kind has been reported to me as occurring in Chinatown."

"As to tuberculosis, there have been seven Chinese cases reported to me during the year, the total of all cases reported in the city, including Chinese, being ninety-five. I am not at liberty to comply with your request to inform you of the names of doctors reporting cases, as such information received by me I consider confidential."

"You commenced your letter with reference to political speeches and politicians. Kindly note that this my reply, is a statement of statistics and has nothing to do with politics, for neither in my official or private capacity do I mix in them."

LOAN DRIVE IS ALL READY TO GO "OVER THE TOP"

Organization Perfected to Carry Bond Wave Into Every Section of City

With only a week before the drive will commence, the men in charge of the Victory Loan campaign are perfecting an organization which will fine-comb the city for idle dollars and insure the realization of Victoria's $5,000,000 objective.

The terms of salesmen have been chosen and instructed in their duties, the heads of the various sub-organizations have been appointed and loan offices have been opened. Practically everything is ready. The success of the drive will therefore depend not so much on the activities of the loan sellers as upon the attitude of the public. Those in charge, however, have no fear on this score; last year's splendid record is sufficient of itself to set all doubts on the matter at rest.

Fifteen bond selling teams have been organized, each of them including two returned soldiers. In this way the whole campaign will have a distinct military air. It and returned men, to a great extent, will reap whatever profits there are to be made on sale commissions.

At the Victory Loan headquarters in the old Peden store on Government Street everything is in readiness for the booming of the first gun of the drive next Monday morning. Decks this year have been supplied for each separate team, while the officers directing the operations will also be on deck all the time. At the main office J. H. Talling, of the British American Bond Corporation, assisted by Major E. B. Hart, formerly of the Canadian Scottish, and T. H. Burns, another returned man, will have charge. The general secretary, Charles Williams, will supply all information to the public and to the bond sellers.

White sales will be directed entirely from the Government Street headquarters the general organization of the city and the whole island will be centred in offices in the Pemberton Building, where General Clark, Island Chairman, will have charge. A complete office staff, which will look after the heavy routine and clerical work involved in the campaign, has been installed and already is busy with the extensive arrangements that are being made for next week's activities.

A woman who was troubled with chronic nightmare, and who frequently cried out in her sleep, advertised for room and board "with a family who would not object to screaming in the night." Among the answers she received was one which asked: "How often would you require us to scream?"

Nelson Day

Its Message to Canadians

ONE hundred and fifteen years ago tomorrow Nelson achieved his great Victory at Trafalgar and decided Britain's supremacy on the seas.

Today, we eagerly strive for the commercial supremacy of the seas, and to that end we MUST train our Canadian boys to man Canadian ships to carry Canada's exports.

Canada Expects that Every Man will do his Duty.

Tomorrow and the two following days you will be given an opportunity to insure the success of the Boys' Naval Brigades, on which rests the continuance of the type of trained seamen Canada must have.

The Navy League Campaign for $500,000 must be an unqualified success so that the great work undertaken may be carried forward during the coming year.

Every dollar subscribed will be used in Canada to aid Canadians—to provide relief for Canadian seamen injured in the war and their dependents—to conduct comfortable homes on shore for our seamen in port—to organize Boys' Naval Brigades and give our boys the necessary training so that if they decide their livelihood is on the sea they will be ready for Merchant Service.

Tomorrow the campaign starts. For three days, many of our best citizens will give all their time and attention to the raising of the fund. Help them. Respond liberally. There is a great issue at stake. Do your part to the utmost of your ability.

SHELLY'S 4X BREAD

Bread should take the place of the Highest Priced Foods

HEarken a minute! This is a matter of vital importance to you and the cost of living. Do you know that bread, the most nourishing food there is, has advanced only a few cents as compared with pre-war prices—leave alone any comparison with the higher-priced foods. Today, bread is still without compare as "the staff of life"—by far the cheapest food to be had.

NEXT time you sit down to a meal, suppose you "check up" and see how much bread you really eat. Maybe it will surprise you how you are neglecting this greatest of all body-builders. Bread, such as 4-X Bread, is much cheaper than anything else you can think of. Get back into the habit of our grandfathers—eat more bread. You'll find SHELLY'S 4-X BREAD—

AUSTRALIAN FEDERAL HOUSE-BUILDING PLAN

The Federal Housing Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Australia states that operations for building houses for returned soldiers and dependents of deceased soldiers will be commenced very soon and will be pushed as rapidly as possible. The shortage of dwellings is serious and there is an unfortunate scarcity of building materials.

Before the war, in the city of Melbourne, an average of seventy-five houses were begun every week. It is estimated that the yearly construction for the Commonwealth must be at least 25,000 houses. To build that number of four-roomed cottages would require 875,000,000 bricks, which is more than the annual pre-war production. Hence the manufacture of bricks will have to be greatly increased. It is also estimated that a minimum of 200,000,000 feet of lumber will be required annually to relieve the present congestion.

Soldiers are to be encouraged to build new houses rather than to purchase places already built. The deeds will be retained by the Government until 25 per cent of the price has been paid off, when they may be handed to the buyer. The Commissioner hopes to be able to build at 15 per cent. below the market price asked by private contractors.

A woman's idea of good luck is to find in the pile a pair of socks that doesn't need darning.

Medical testimony was given to show that accused was suffering pain from the cause stated, but the Court held that while the action may have been justifiable, a doctor's prescription should have been obtained. Counsel for accused said that his client had no knowledge of the powder being cocaine, and the fine of $10 and $7.50 costs imposed was paid under protest.

WILL MANAGE HOTEL AT SOOKE HARBOR

Maj. George Nicholson, M.C., and Capt. Willis Take Over Popular Hostelry

The Sooke Harbor Hotel, at Milne's Landing, one of the best-known country hostels in the neighborhood of Victoria, is changing its management. C. H. Barbour retires and the business will be conducted by Major G. W. Nicholson, M.C., and his relative, Captain K. Willis.

Major Nicholson was for so many years associated with athletics in Victoria before he went overseas, where he served with distinction, winning the Military Cross for gallantry, that his loss to Victoria athletics and social life so soon after his return will be greatly felt. However, the Major hopes to see his old friends out at Sooke Harbor, where it is his intention to make a specialty of hunting and fishing parties. The fine location of the hotel is known to all Victorians. Improvements are now being carried out, including the installation of steam heat, and connection with the city waterworks.

Eight Ridings. Ottawa, Oct. 19.—There is wide interest in the nominations to-day in the eight Dominion constituencies in which contests for the House of Commons will take place.

Two members of the cabinet and the new Liberal leader are seeking the confirmation of constituents. Hon. S. F. Tolmie, the new Minister of Agriculture, is standing in Victoria, B. C., where he has an opponent a returned soldier, T. A. Barnard, who is the candidate of the Federated Labor Party. Sir Henry L. Drayton, the new Minister of Finance, is a candidate in Kingston, Ontario, where it is expected he will be returned by acclamation. It is expected also that Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, the new Dominion Liberal Leader, will be returned by acclamation in Prince County, Prince Edward Island.

Carleton-Victoria. In Carleton-Victoria, N. B., the fight will be between Melville, Unionist; Caldwell, United Farmers' candidate; and Mrs. M. H. Adney, a woman candidate. Hon. Arthur Meighen and Hon. N. W. Rowell plan to go to the constituency during the week-end and speak for Colonel Melville.

In Quebec East, with Armand Lavergne out, the contest is between Ernest Lapointe, Liberal; Gellais, Labor, and Walsh, Independent, unless there should be some last-hour development. In Glengarry-Stormont, Ontario, the candidates are Brigadier-General Hervey, Unionist, and Wilfred Kennedy, Farmers' candidate, while in Ontario the contest will be between Cowan, Unionist, and Halbert, president of the United Farmers of Ontario. A particularly bitter fight is on in Assiniboia with Gould, Grain Growers' candidate, and W. R. Motherwell, Liberal, on the ticket.

PHEASANTS SCARCE, BUT LOTS OF QUAIL

Many Hunters Out For Opening of Duck, Quail and Pheasant Shooting

The opening simultaneously Saturday of the pheasant, duck and quail season attracted hundreds of hunters. "You cannot go a couple of dozen yards without running into a huntman," said one sportsman in from Sooke Saturday, and their numbers were considerably added to during the week-end.

Those out after the elusive pheasant seem to have had poor luck on the whole, and there are very few cases of the limit bag being obtained reported. The birds, usually so tame, seemed to scent the opening of the season, and there were some who did not even get sight of a bird.

The quail are numerous everywhere according to the accounts of the week-end hunters. The limit bag was possible for any average marksman, and huntmen from every section bring in the same report.

Although duck shooting opened there were very few attracted. The weather is not yet cold enough to drive the birds to the inland marshes, and one or two storms are necessary before duck hunting becomes worth while.

"THE NEW MOON" AT ROYAL VICTORIA

Norma Talmadge Is Featured in Thrilling Russian Drama

"The New Moon," Norma Talmadge's latest Select Picture, in which she is presented by Joseph M. Schenck for two days, only to-night and to-morrow, at the Royal Victoria theatre, is a tense and thrilling drama of Russian home life as it exists to-day.

It is not a war picture and has no war scenes in it, but is the story of a Russian Princess, Marie Pavlovna, who is attacked in her castle by an anarchist and forced to flee for safety. In her hurried escape she is separated from her fiancé, Michael Koloyar. To insure her safety the Princess disguises herself as a peasant girl and goes to a neighboring province where she takes refuge in a small store.

As a possible means of finding a clue to the whereabouts of his lost fiancé, Michael becomes a member of the Anarchist Club under the rule of Kamenoff.

Meanwhile, into the peace of the village where the Princess is finding all the happiness possible without Michael, comes the decree issued by Kamenoff, ordering all the women in the province to register for the purpose of nationalization. While some of the women are duped into believing that it will be for their own good to register, the Princess knows the true meaning of the edict and refuses to register. She incites the other women to follow her example and promises to smuggle them over the border to the next province.

Kamenoff passes through the village and recognizes the Princess in her disguise. He tries to force her to register. She refuses and fights him off as he embraces her. Michael, who has just been detailed to duty in the village, sees his fiancé for the first time since she made her escape from the castle—in the arms of Kamenoff. He believes the worst. ### "YVONNE FROM PARIS" AT ROMANO THEATRE

Popular Mary Miles Winter Is Sure of Hearty Welcome

Take a dashing Parisian dancer, a violinist, a distinguished American theatrical producer, a good-looking bachelor playwright, a disreputable "lounge lizard" and a tigerish woman aflame with jealousy.

Mix well with Paris and Broadway atmosphere. Add a plentiful sprinkling of stage, shipboard, cafe, hotel and taxi settings.

Flavor with the spice of real life in a big city. Stir in pretty dresses, sparkling smiles, twinkling toes, delightful acting, quaint little incidents and a charming romance.

Sweeten with Mary Miles Minter—decoration with an all-star cast—and you have a combination of comedy and drama that, baked into a picture-ple made with customary "Flying A" care for detail, is guaranteed to tickle every palate and make 'em call for "More!"

The name of the prize production above analyzed is "Yvonne From Paris," and when it comes to the Romano to-day for a three-day showing, film fans will want to be on hand to get their rightful share of its delightful fare.

Never before has Miss Minter been supported by so many popular and capable players—folks like J. Barney Sherry, probably the best-liked and best-known character man on the screen; E. Alyn Warren, a genius in the makeup and pantomime of the Italian; Rosemary Theby, who is so much in demand for adventuresome roles that she never gets a chance to play the everyday kind of woman any more; Bertram Grady, a specialist in the ways and wiles of cabs and "boudiers."

FEAST OF DANCES IS PANTAGES BILL

New Programme of Vaudeville Offers Variety of Steps and Good Entertainment

Dances of almost every variety feature the new bill of Pantages vaudeville which opened with the matinee performance this afternoon. The show will be popular as a veritable dance feast, for every one of the six good acts presents a distinct, individual style of dancing along with six other forms of vaudeville entertainment. These terpsichorean efforts vary between the lively, irresistible, rhythmic step dances and the toe shuffle, by way of the stately, graceful steps of the semi-classics and novelty jigs on the light wire.

Chief of the diversions the bill offers is George Damerel's gorgeous musical production, "Temptation." The name is appropriate. The bewitching dances and songs of the gayly garbed chorus and principals, and the elaborate stage settings of the production certainly do "tempt."

A feature of the act is a diabolical dance by the tempter of the cast, Bobby Vail is the comedian. Entertaining to an equal degree, but in a different way, are Dunbar and Turner. They are a boy and girl song, dance and comedy team, with an act which is as amusing as it is clever. One of the features of the act is the eccentric dances of the pair, coupled with a few yodel songs, a line of original and really funny patter and some clever eccentric costumes. The act is best described as "a scream."

Dancing of a different order is offered by Cecilia Dundrea and Henry Walters, in their "Dance Fantasy." The fantasy is a beautifully staged and executed series of gay modern exhibition dances. The costumes are novel and likeable, and the pair prove masters of graceful steps. One of the feature dances is set in a tennis court, the pair dancing around and over the net in an artistic conception of the ultimate in racket grace.

Quigley and Fitzgerald are a pair of entertaining song and dance comedians. They dispense the light jazzy "step and shuffle" variety of the light fantastic. While one plays a tin whistle the other cavorts in intricate agile eccentric steps of a high entertainment value. They have several song numbers and a highly risible line of original patter.

Frank Ward presents first "finger dancing." On a little stage with dolls on his hands, he presents a miniature exhibition of fantastic steps, along with a few songs. Then he comes out, discarding the dolls, and dances the variety of terpsichorean effort known as "soft shoe dancing," and proves a master of the art.

The Four Leons, billed as the "Fastest tight-wire act in the world," are without doubt a whirlwind. They surpass themselves in delicate feats of agility on the taut string, among their most interesting numbers being a dance on the thin wire. A human wheelbarrow trick on the wire, and the feat of one of the four carrying the other three across the narrow stretch, are among the features of their act.

The sixth episode of "The Carter Case" is the offering of the Pantagescope.

New York ladies have started wearing as earrings copies of their admirers' service decorations.

ANITA STEWART AT DOMINION THEATRE

"Human Desire," With Star in Leading Role, Has Strong Appeal to Women

Anita Stewart as Berenice, a little Italian girl, fills in the void in the life of a New York artist in "Human Desire" which is to be shown at the Dominion theatre all week. In this feature, which is being distributed by First National, Miss Stewart has a role for which she is extraordinarily fitted temperamentally and physically.

Robert Bruce, who has won his way high in American art circles, is married to a cold and unsympathetic wife. No matter what work he does, or what new honors come to him, she is not appreciative. They have no children, and the wife wants none as she thinks they are too much bother. So, with none in his family to show the little attentions which his sensitive artist's soul craves, Bruce is unhappy.

Things reach the pass where he and his wife feel that they cannot go on living together, and the wife decides that she will take a trip to Italy so that she may think over a permanent separation. Fate dictates that this move shall bring her husband in the end happiness, and that she shall be the instrument used. With a companion she visits the convent in which may be seen the Frampink Madonna.

There the American woman finds a little Italian girl who has been brought up inside the convent, innocent and unacquainted with the ways of the world. She longs for knowledge of how people live outside, but most of all she longs for babies. She has seen but one—that in the arms of the Madonna. She asks the American woman if there are real babies of flesh and blood in the world. The woman tells her that there are many babies in America and that some of them are cold and hungry.

This touches the heart of the Italian girl, Berenice, and she decides that she shall go to America and succor the suffering children. She escapes from the convent and through a curious chain of circumstances becomes the sweetheart of the artist while his wife is still away. With the wife unwilling to give the husband a divorce she finds Berenice in her home and turns her out.

Then follow a remarkable train of events, swiftly moving, which bring retribution and in the end happiness for Bruce and the girl he has protected.

RACIAL STRUGGLE TOLD IN PHOTOPLAY

Variety Presents "His Debt"
This Week: A Double-Header

Manager Murdoch is offering an innovation at the Variety this week in presenting the Burns Bros' Memphis Minstrels in a typical minstrel show in addition to his picture programme, which includes the famous Japanese star, Sessue Hayakawa, in his latest release, "His Debt." This is a double-header that should please both picture fans and those who appreciate a real minstrel performance, comprising plantation melodies, good wholesome jokes and musical numbers. The aggregation includes twelve talented entertainers. Owing to the extension of the programme this week, the management has decided to hold only one matinee performance, at 3 o'clock, and two evening performances, at 7 and 9 o'clock.

The story of "His Debt," the picture offering, draws attention again to the race barrier, without unduly emphasizing this angle. Goro Moriyama, a young Japanese owner of a gambling house in an American city, believes in the "square deal," and also follows the plan of giving to the poor the money collected from the rich. His house is frequented by a young man of wealth, Blair Whitcomb, who is engaged to a beautiful young daughter of a home of wealth and honor. Whitcomb, who is in the habit of coming to Moriyama's house under the influence of liquor, finally loses all he has. In a moment of anger, he hands over to Moriyama, as the result of a lost wager, a cheque of ten thousand dollars, which his bank refuses on the ground of insufficient funds.

To revenge himself on Moriyama for expelling him from the gambling house, Whitcomb shoots at him through the window of his private apartment and lodges a bullet in his body which almost causes his death. Whitcomb's sweetheart, returning to her profession of nurse, happens to be put in charge of Moriyama's case, knowing nothing of the unhappy relations between Moriyama and Whitcomb.

Moriyama falls in love with her; and when he is about to avenge himself on Whitcomb by giving him up to the police, the girl intervenes, and her plea for her lover is granted, the Japanese failing to identify Whitcomb as his would-be murderer.

"THE WHIP" OCCUPIES COLUMBIA SCREEN

Race Track Drama Will Be Attraction During Week

For powerful, gripping and intensely interesting scenes few photo-plays shown in local picture houses have eclipsed "The Whip," which opens a week's engagement at the Columbia to-day.

The story is a combination of love and romance of the race track and shows some startling original scenes that make the audience sit almost breathless for minutes at a time.

There are thrills galore and tense situations throughout the two hours it takes to unfold the spirited story, which is a monument to the photographers' art and the director who conceived the situations and effects.

There are several climaxes, each one more exciting than the other, but the real startling effect is produced when the Saratoga express running at a high rate of speed crashes into a box car cut from a train by the adventurer, splintering it to kindling wood and throwing engine and cars over the embankment a twisted mass.

"The Whip," a race horse, is the centre of the plot, of course. It is scheduled for the famous Saratoga handicap. Enemies of the owner and a bookmaker attempt the destruction of the thoroughbred, but in spite of all their attempts, every one of which is frustrated, the Whip, with the owner's daughter on its back, runs under the wire a winner, and the villains receive their deserts.

Not the least exciting incident is a race between an automobile and a train, in which the train forges ahead for a short time, only to be headed and beaten by the big racer. Those who are fond of horses and dogs should see this picture. There are several packs of hounds and a fox hunt from the start to the killing. There is a real horse show with the finest driving horses on the continent on exhibition, and a most intimate scene at the Saratoga race track.

ORPHEUM OFFERS ARRAY OF TALENT

Impersonations, Novelty and Oriental Dancing Comprise Attractive Show

Three very popular ladies with three very different kinds of acts, Miss Eva Shirley, Miss Venita Gould and the Princess Rajah, will provide a considerable part of the entertainment at the Royal Victoria on the bill of Orpheum vaudeville on Friday and Saturday with a Saturday matinee. Miss Venita Gould will offer a number of popular impersonations of such eminent stage people as Eva Tanguay, Madame Nazimova, Geo. Cohen, Al. Jolson and many others equally well known. Miss Gould has a natural gift for mimicry and she has given her subjects a great deal of care and study. She is one of the most successful imitators of the day.

Miss Eva Shirley, assisted by Fido Gordon's Musical Boys and Al. Roth, a shimmy dancer, will offer a novelty in jazz. Miss Shirley is a prima donna with voice, tone, proper enunciation and an enviable personality, whilst Al. Roth is considered a shimmy dancer par excellence, who, with the band thrown in, makes the act an irresistible combination of eccentric syncope.

The Princess Rajah, a member of the royal house of Egypt, will present a number of Oriental dances brilliantly costumed and executed. Her "Cleopatra Dance" is a little tragedy told in terpsichorean art. It is based on the story of Antony and Cleopatra as told in Shakespeare's play. She will also present "The Arabian Chair Dance" which is regarded as little short of marvellous. Her work at all times is intense and fascinating, ranking her amongst the foremost dancers of the day.

Kitner and Reaney will present a nautical skit full of laughs and quarter-deck comedy. The skit is a veritable gabfest with a little music thrown in here and there.

Arthur West has just returned from the "other side" where he has been entertaining soldiers, with the assistance of his associates, present a tabloid comedy "What the Critics Said." A supposed criticism of their act is read after which Mr. West and his company of one try to play it as the critics said it should be done. It is a jolly affair happily handled.

Mark Nelson, the juggler, and as such is exceedingly clever, will offer an act chuck full of novel and humorous tricks that will be found highly exhilarating. Besides being a juggler, Nelson is a comedian, but above all he is an originator, probably the most valuable asset of a vaudeville artist.

"The Man Hunt" contains a moral—"Don't walk nor talk in your sleep." This somnambulist comedy was written by Harlem Thompson and is being admirably presented over the Orpheum circuit by Iside Illian. It is quite a refreshing novelty and should make a distinct hit with Victoria audiences. The nocturnal wanderings made by Bess played by Iside Illian has made "The Man Hunt" one of the successes of the season.

BILLIARDS.

In the Empress billiards handicap tournament the match in the first round played Saturday night between Ralton (0-75), and Milligan (0-25), was won by the latter by 250 to 162.

Milligan's best breaks were 33, 28, 27 and 18, and Ralton's 44 and 28.

The draw for the second round is as follows:

Baker (r-75), vs. Trimen (r-75).

Holman (0-50), vs. Humber (r-50).

Olson (r-125), vs. Thornborough (scratched).

Baillair (r-125), vs. Smith (r-25).

Watson (r-75), vs. Darke (r-25).

Hinson (0-125), vs. Milligan (0-25).

The winner of Patton (0-50), vs. Perry (0-50), meets Sale (0-100), in this round.

The second half started with the Vets kicking off and they soon were swarming around the Harbor Marines goal; but poor shooting spoiled their efforts.

The Harbor Marines broke away and a general appeal was made for offense by the Vets and a whistle went, play stopped, the Harbor centre forward walked up and put the ball past Pendray, who never attempted to play it. Then the Vets broke away Rudd and Kerr, going down the wing. Rudd centering to Bartholomew beat the back, and scored the "Pathfinder" end to end play followed, with the Vets always a shade better. Half time arrived with the score one to nil in favor of the Vets.

War Veterans Take Top Position From Yarrows in Soccer League

K. of C. Hut Lowers Champions' Colors—Wests Jump to Second Position

ASSOCIATION—SENIOR LEAGUE

Wards, 3; Fragments, 0.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

Army and Navy Veterans, 4; Firemen, 2.
Wests, 1; Metropolis, 1.
Saanich Rovers, 6; Post Office, 1.

By defeating the Harbor Marine after a hard game by two to nothing, the Great War Veterans secured a couple of points, which gave them a brace lead over any other team in the soccer league. With the Wests fighting hard for a position against the Foundation and securing the necessary victory they took a jump from fourth to second position on the chart. The surprise of the day was the overwhelming defeat of the Fragments by the Wards. Nine to nothing was the sad story for the returned men, in spite of the fact that the Wards have lost a couple of their star players since last week.

The addition of two Wards players to the Harbor Marine eleven told its story in the great fight they put up with the War Veterans.

Three games only were played in the Intermediate League, the Seven Oaks Rovers having dropped out of the competition. The chart to date stands:

	Goals
P. W. L. D. F. A. Pts.
Great War Vet.	4 0 0 11 22
Wests	4 3 1 0 8 34

Crowded Sport.

The Harbor & Marines and Great War Veterans clashed at the Willows on a poor ground before a small crowd of spectators, the War Vets, taking the game 2-1. The game was marred throughout by the too near intermediate game, one playing pitch being only divided by a ten yard margin. Both teams being confused by the whistle of the referees in the other games, The Pathfinder also seemed eager to enter into the game and twice the players had to beat it to the tune of the aeroplanes' engines and propeller and on both occasions the pilot scored. The Vets won the toss and chose to play with the sun at their backs. H. & M.'s kicked off and their outside left broke away with a burst of speed that left the Vets' defense standing, but he centred weakly and never once more did he shine, for Ackroyd took his measure right away from then to the end.

Vets. Persistent.

The Vets were more persistent, and swarmed around the Marines' goal, but could not shoot with any accuracy on account of the ground. Owens the H. M.'s right half was playing a beautiful game and he was their one man who shone throughout the game. Rough went away and centering grandly Kerr met the ball and scored the Vets' first goal; straight away Bartholomew missed with a daisy cutter that for speed beat the "Pathfinder" end to end play followed, with the Vets always a shade better. Half time arrived with the score one to nil in favor of the Vets.

Crowding the Marines.

The second half started with the Vets kicking off and they soon were swarming around the Harbor Marines goal; but poor shooting spoiled their efforts. The Harbor Marines broke away and a general appeal was made for offense by the Vets and a whistle went, play stopped, the Harbor centre forward walked up and put the ball past Pendray, who never attempted to play it. Then the Vets broke away Rudd and Kerr, going down the wing. Rudd centering to Bartholomew beat the back, and scored the "Pathfinder" end to end play followed, with the Vets always a shade better. Half time arrived with the score one to nil in favor of the Vets.

The Intermediates.

In the opening game of the Intermediate Soccer series on Saturday the Army and Navy Veterans beat the Firemen by 4 goals to 2 in a clean fast game. The winners fully deserved their victory, being much faster on the ball than their heavier opponents, and it was well for the Firemen that they had a good pair of backs. Every man on the winning team did credit to himself and his team. Dowds at centre forward opened up the play and kept his wings going nicely. Sharcott scored for the Vets with a nice drive after ten minutes play, and this was quickly followed by one from Christian. Lynn broke away and scored for the Firemen. Half-time score: Vets, 2; Firemen, 1. After about twenty minutes play in the second period the Firemen evened the score through Lynn. Qualiton soon put the Vets ahead, scoring with a beautifully placed shot. A few minutes before time Call increased the Vets' lead with a good ordered shot, and the ex-service men ran out winners by the score of 4-2.

PATRICK PLANS RINK AT CALGARY

Waiting to See if Calgary Proves Support of Hockey

Calgary, Oct. 19.—Fred Whitcroft, who a few years ago was a prominent hockey star in Eastern and Western Canada, and who has represented the Pacific Coast League as an official scout in the West, who arrived here to-day, states that Frank Patrick, president of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, is seriously considering the erection in Calgary of an artificial ice arena for hockey and skating. Mr. Whitcroft claims that Mr. Patrick showed him blueprints of the proposed arena which in the summer months will be utilized as an auditorium for the booking of big attractions such as bands and singers. The plans call for seating capacity of about 6,000 and the ice surface will be as big as the Vancouver Arena. Whether this venture will go ahead for the 1921 season all depends upon whether Calgary and Edmonton prove major league hockey cities this winter when there will be playing inter-city hockey by four teams greatly composed of imported material. The Pacific Coast League will watch the outcome very closely. He figures this league will provide him with material for his professional circuit.

Vancouver, Oct. 20.—While Frank Patrick, president of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association, to-night confirmed reports from Calgary that he had in mind the erection of an arena for hockey and skating in that city, he told the Canadian Press that the venture would not go beyond the tentative stage until next spring at the earliest. His tentative plans call for the erection of a $200,000 building which would accommodate hockey and skating in the winter, and would provide an auditorium in the summer, with a swimming pool as an added attraction.

"We have pretty well established plans," said Mr. Patrick, "and they all depend upon the support which hockey receives in Calgary this winter. If Calgary proves capable of supporting a good hockey team we will be encouraged in going ahead."

We plan a two or three-club league in Alberta, playing hockey of the same calibre as is played on the Coast, with an inter-provincial series at the close of each season to decide the western championship.

INTER-CITY BOWLING

Vancouver players were victorious in the telegraphic bowling tournament at the Viny bowling alley Saturday, the score being as follows:

	Til. Ave.
Hudson	128 166 125—429 143
Moulton	201 153 167—521 174
Crossman	108 92 151—351 114
Vinall	128 152 146—426 141
Chief	158 191 121—470 163

Total Vancouver 2,187.
First game, 794; second game, 867; third game, 874. Total 2,535.

BASKETBALL.

In the second game of the Y. M. C. A. Basketball League Saturday, the High School team, consisting of L. Bickell, A. Jones, A. Lewis, A. Webster and A. Boyd, played a hard game, but the weight of the Huskies was a little too much for them, the latter winning the game by 23 to 18.

The game was closely contested in the first half, the score at half-time being 9 to 8 in favor of the Huskies, whose line-up was Melville, Macday (captain), Nute, Young, Corlie and Hudson.

Returned Men!

This is NEW. Invented While You Were Overseas

Clever, isn't it?

No one thought it possible to design a cuff that would fold as neat and flat when turned in as when turned out.

But it has been done.

Now when the cuff of your W. G. & R. shirt gets soiled, you turn the other side of the Double Wear Cuff. This enables a man to wear his shirt twice as long before sending it to the laundry. It cuts your laundry bills on shirts clean in two.

It adds months to the life of your shirt, because everyone knows that laundering a shirt is harder on it than wearing it.

And remember—

These shirts cost no more than good shirts should.

MACKAY AND STANLEY

MAY MEET A SNAG

Hard to See How They Can Confirm With Rules For
Re-instatement

Vancouver, Oct. 20.—A bombshell was exploded in the headquarters of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association at Vancouver this week when information was received from Calgary, Alberta, that Mickey Mackay, sensational young forward of the Millionaires last season, has signed up with the Columbus team of Calgary and will not come to the Coast this season. Atop of this information also comes the tidings that Barney Stanley, another Vancouver forward, will stay in Edmonton team in the Alberta Amateur League, thus robbing Vancouver of two of the most important players on the squad. President Frank Patrick refuses to comment upon the matter. He has not yet sent out any contracts and has had no official word from either players as to his intentions. The information concerning Mackay, however, is pretty definite, the youngster having signed a contract with Manager T. McKinley, and declaring emphatically that he will not return to the Coast. He has a lucrative position in Calgary and intends to remain there.

Amateurs May Bar Them.

Both the Calgary and Edmonton teams are purely amateur, and the story of the return of Mackay and Stanley to the "simon-pure" ranks is rather a long one, but an explanation is necessary, inasmuch as both players are probably laboring under a wrong impression, and when it comes to a show-down may find that not only will they be unable to compete in the amateur game, but may find their places filled here if they desire to return.

A couple of weeks ago at the annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union in Ottawa, Ontario, a resolution was passed to the effect that professional athletes could be reinstated as amateurs by their local boards, provided they furnish an affidavit declaring their intention of remaining amateurs during the remainder of their lives. It is hard to see how either of these two players can take out such an affidavit, in fact the resolution passed at the Ottawa meeting was more on the understanding that the professionals seeking reinstatement would be returned soldiers who professionalized themselves overseas, and old pros who find themselves too slow for the professional game at the present time.

Rugby Men Open With Two Friendlies Wanderers and Island Club Take Games

Naval College Fields Strong Intermediate Team—High School Fifteen Play V.I.A.A. Men Hard

Making a plucky fight against older and more experienced opponents, the Royal Naval College fifteen lost to the Wanderers at Oak Bay by thirteen points to six Saturday. The naval men were playing against some of the former stars of the rugby game who were included in the Wanderers' eleven captained by D. M. Grant, and although many of the players were making their first appearance on the field for a year or two, and some are suffering from the effects of wounds, the Wanderers gave promise of fielding a team that will be well worthy of the name of the club which has played an important part in the game in Victoria.

A large crowd were out to see the game, although the supporters of the intermediate side were greatly in the majority. The game was less than ten minutes old before the Wanderers had obtained a try which they failed to convert. Three more points followed and this time the effort to majorize was successful. Just before half time Cundill crossed the line for the naval men, Ryall failing with the kick.

The Wanderers added five points and the Naval College three in the second half, and with the players finding their stride better the game contained a lot of features looked for in mid-season rugby. Some of the old stars on the Wanderers' side were responsible for flashes of brilliant individual work, although the team has not yet had an opportunity to developing that combination looked for later. The teams were:

Wanderers—Full-back, C. S. Williams; three-quarters, T. Matson, S. Gillespie, E. B. Gaudin and A. Munsey; half-backs, N. Robertson and D. M. Grant; five-eighths, H. B. Hudson; forwards, J. McIlree, H. Robinson, H. Wilson, J. Collins, H. Hummer, M. Green and W. Watson.

Royal Naval College—Full-back, Cann; three-quarters, Woolcombe, De Wolf, Ryall and Sundill; half-backs, Lieut. Napier and Hemy; five-eighths, Pickard; forwards, Lieut. Jones, Kinch, Budden, Myers, Mackintosh, Brock, Smith and Mitchell.

The V. I. A. A. beat the High School fifteen by a score of eleven to five, after the students had opened in a manner that led the spectators to believe they would secure an easy victory. The High School men were aggressive for the first ten minutes, but when the V. I. A. A. men at last cleared the Island Club men became dangerous. Cowan, Grubb, Wilson and Matson played good rugby for the Island players, Hendrick, the Clark brothers and Lewis played well for the High School.

Calgary Won.

Edmonton, Oct. 19.—Calgary Canucks defeated the University of Alberta, 16 to 1 in their Rugby union game Saturday afternoon. Calgary points were scored on three touchdowns and a rouge, while a few minutes before the end of the game variety secured a rouge. Lack of knowledge of the game and poor tackling was responsible for variety's defeat.

Another for Calgary.

Calgary, Oct. 20.—One of the cleanest and hardest fought senior Rugby games in years was played here Saturday between Calgary Tigers and Edmonton Canucks, the former winning 8 to 6. Crozier, of the Edmonton team, was the outstanding star of the game, his punting and running being a constant menace to the local players. Wark, Ritchie and Livingstone starred for the locals. One of the features of the game was Crozier's eighty-yard punt to the deadline for a point. Crozier also made Edmonton's touchdown. Ross kicked to the goal and Ritchie kicked into touch in goal and "Bull" Ritchie made a touchdown and converted for Calgary.

Cannot Play For Allan Cup,
Says Writer

Toronto, Oct. 20.—The Globe sporting editor says to-day:

"Hogsheads of whitewash have been opened in the western provinces to restore to 'amateurism' soldier professionals who desire to perform in the ranks of the simon-pures. The latest star athlete to be immersed in spotless white is Mickey Mackay, adjudged by many to be the greatest hockey player in Canada. When the westerners threatened to secede from the A.A.U. of C., it was agreed that those provinces that so desired, might reinstate soldier professionals, but with the express understanding that the reinstatement would not be recognized in the east or outside of the provinces which declared for the privilege of the whitewashing process. Teams of kalsomined professionals will not be received into Allan Cup competition with the O. H. A. which now holds the cup, or with other leagues which are not in accord with the laxity of the west."

VICTORIA GOLFERS POPULAR LOSERS AT SOUND CITY LINKS

Many U. S. Supporters Would Like to Have Seen Visiting
Ladies Win

By a margin of eight matches the Victoria team of twenty players lost their hold on the H. C. Henry trophy at Seattle—deserve to be remembered as long as golfing tradition is kept green. Games to the core, they lacked the team strength to carry through. There were those who, knowing the brave fight the Victoria women were making in this last, deciding match, dropped every vestige of national selfishness and hoped and "pulled" for the Victorians to win, says The Seattle Times. As a matter of fact, it would have left only an agreeable taste in the mouth of the entire American team had they been defeated.

History of the Trophy.

Starting in the spring of 1914 the H. C. Henry Trophy brought together twenty women teams from both sides the international border, Victoria and Vancouver furnishing ten each for the Canadian team and Seattle and Tacoma a like number apiece for the American team. During the intervening time—with a suspension during the war period—matches were played at all four cities. Each team had won two matches and a fifth was necessary. Seattle staged a match which went to a tie. It was decided to play the tie off here, for, it was necessary to establish three wins of the trophy.

The play-off of that tie took place last Thursday. There were twenty Victoria players forming the Canadian team. Vancouver failed to field a team.

The three women singled out by Mrs. Jack Little, the Victoria captain as her star players, were all new players to Seattle followers of golf. They were Mrs. B. R. Philbrick, Mrs. J. Hutchinson and Mrs. Gordon Mogg, placed respectively in the team list. But for their presence there would have been placed at the top the former top-women of the being eliminated. Mrs. Margaret Sayward, Mrs. Bird, Mrs. F. Colbourne, Mrs. Arthur Jones and the others who followed in the order of the draw.

Mrs. Philbrick is recently from Regina, Sask., but she had learned her golf and started in it at the Leicestershire Golf Club, England. There, she had been a member of the Mid-lands team in the territorial team matches. She defeated Mrs. Elizabeth Curran in the match last Thursday and when the Pacific Northwest champion told of her defeat at the sixteenth green, she said: "She is much too fine a golfer for me to have done any better than I did."

Mrs. Hutchinson obtained her early golf training in New Zealand. She defeated Miss Gena Peters, the Seattle Golf Club champion, by 2 to 1. Mrs. Mogg played a halved match with Mrs. Howard Wright, one of the strongest players Tacoma has produced in recent years. It was a full style at the eighteenth green that lost the hole for Mrs. Mogg and squared the match. Mrs. Mogg, too, is an English-bred player.

When the first ten matches had been reported, the strength of the Victoria team—as it appeared playing on a foreign course—became apparent; for they had won four matches, lost five and halved one. It was the second division that was outpointed by the American players, bringing a net result of eight matches up for the day. There was but one match won by the visitors in the second division and one tied.

Summing up the result of the American team, in which eleven Seattle and nine Tacoma women played, Tacoma won five matches, lost two and halved two, while Seattle won eight, lost three and halved none.

Following the win of the trophy, Mrs. Hulskamp and Mrs. Corse agreed that the Seattle and the Tacoma teams would get together and play a series of best-of-five matches to determine which team would get the trophy. It is not likely these matches will begin before next spring.

Following is the result of the deciding international team match for the H. C. Henry trophy, Victoria players named first:

Match Results:
Mrs. B. R. Philbrick, 4 and 2, vs. Mrs. E. Curran; Mrs. J. Hutchinson, 2 and 1, vs. Miss Gena Peters; Mrs. Gordon Mogg vs. Mrs. Howard Wright, even; Miss Nellie Mara, 2 and 1, vs. Mrs. D. H. Moss; Miss Margaret

To the Electors of the City of Victoria

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

Less than two years ago, at the request of a number of the electors of this city, I consented to stand for election as your representative in the Dominion House of Commons.

The support you gave me on that occasion was very flattering, and one deserving a much better man.

I little thought at that time that any circumstance could arise that would call for my appeal for your support so soon again, but in recognition, I presume, of the rights of Vancouver Island to a place in the Cabinet, the Prime Minister extended to me an invitation to join his government and assume the portfolio of Agriculture.

Many friends, particularly those engaged in the live-stock industry, in nearly every province of the Dominion, urged my acceptance of the honor, and I yielded to Sir Robert Borden's request, with the resolution that in the larger sphere I would contribute the best that was in me to conduct the department in what I considered would be to the best interests of all the people of Canada.

Appointment to the Ministry implies resignation in the Commons and fresh endorsement by one's constituency. This accounts for my appeal once more to the electorate. I do so without any misgivings, assured as I am that the handsome majority you gave me as a private member will not be denied to me as a Minister of the Crown.

You have a right, before confirming me in the larger position, to ask me for a report of my stewardship in the lesser.

Matters Personal.

I think that all who have had occasion to seek my assistance in matters of a personal nature have ever found me ready to lend my very best assistance in having the same properly and vigorously placed before the Government and rectified so far as any injustice prevailed. Many such matters yet remain for adjustment and relief, and each just cause will find in me a friend.

Matters Industrial.

I have from time to time called the attention of the Government to certain works and industries which would be of benefit to the city.

It was due to my efforts that the building on Pier 3 at the Ocean Docks was erected, and on my suggestion and co-operation that Pier 2 was rented to the Foundation Company, so as to retain here the installation of machinery in the ships built here by that company.

It was due to the efforts of Mr. McIntosh and myself that the Minister of Marine was induced to let contracts for the building of steel ships here.

These things alone have meant profitable employment here for a large number of men.

The Drydock.

Late in 1917, shortly after my election, I immediately, in conjunction with Mr. McIntosh and Mr. Green, began an agitation for the construction of the Esquimalt Drydock. At that time, if you will remember, there was considerable talk of reconstruction, and it was considered an appropriate time to begin to apply pressure for the completion of the Esquimalt Drydock, which would not only give employment to a large number of men during the reconstruction period, but would provide and centralize an important industry at Victoria. We were met with a great deal of opposition, and soon learned that Vancouver was a strong competitor in the field for the construction of the dock.

After persistent work, carried on continuously at all hours and at all angles, from 1917 to the early Summer of 1919, we were able to secure an undertaking from the Government for the construction of this dock, and a sum of money was placed in the estimates for the commencement of the work at the earliest possible moment. This occurred about the end of June, and we immediately began an agitation for the commencement of borings and the preparation of plans and specifications. Shortly after this, Mr. Daly, engineer of the Public Works Department at Ottawa, came to Victoria and commenced operations in Lang's Cove. These borings occupied some time, and when they were completed it was found that the construction of the drydock in Lang's Cove would be an exceedingly expensive proposition, and that, also, on account of the construction of the Yarrow wharf, that it would be necessary to remove a large portion of the latter before big ships could enter the proposed dock. With this evidence at hand the Public Works Department did not cease operations, but immediately looked over other available sites in Esquimalt.

I am now in position to say that subsequent exploration has practically assured a satisfactory site, and have the assurance of the Government that the work of construction will be prosecuted without delay.

This great public work, which is a national necessity, will provide employment for a large number of men, and will prove a great commercial asset to the community.

The Returned Man.

During my term of office I have given personal attention to the appeals of returned soldiers, their dependents, and all other classes, and as long as I am honored with the position as your representative I will give the same consideration to any individual as I would to any large proposition. You can quite understand it is not always possible for me to secure what is asked for, but in every case I have given the matter my best service until it has been demonstrated to me that it has been impossible to obtain the results expected.

In connection with the undertakings for further public works here, I am ready to urge that the returned soldier be given every possible opportunity to participate in and benefit from these works, and would strongly support any measures in the appointment of inspectors so as to insure his getting fair treatment in this regard.

I think it is only right, also, that when tendering for public works, those companies that have given the soldier fair treatment in the past should be brought particularly to the attention of the Government for their consideration, before contracts are awarded.

The Asiatic Question.

Now, you have always known my stand on the question of Asiatics. I fully realize that it is practically useless for a Canadian to attempt to compete on an equal footing with Asiatic labor. This experience has not been gained in a few years, but has been acquired after a lifetime spent in this Province. In traveling over this Province one cannot help but be impressed with the large number of Asiatics who are owning and occupying lands in this Province at the present time. We all know the history of such occupation in California and other countries, and I for one would much prefer to see that land occupied by a class of settler that could better assimilate with the Canadian people.

I want to say here that my organization was not in any way, directly or indirectly, connected with the registration of Asiatic voters, and I think the Dominion Government is to be highly commended for having passed the amendment to the Elections Act (known as Bill 13), which prevents Orientals voting at Dominion

ASIA HELPS LABOR MEN WIN HOT RACE

C.P.O.S. Liner Brings Men Who Are to Beat Jap Government Representative

Despite the elaborate precautions taken by the Japanese Government to dispatch its representative to the Labor Conference to be held in Washington, D. C., at the instigation of President Wilson, the Japanese labor party has succeeded in landing its delegates on this side of the Pacific first. The C. P. O. S. liner Empress of Asia, Capt. Hailoy, which docked this morning for the Orient, was instrumental in establishing a victory for the Japanese labor men.

Considerable ill-feeling was created in Japan over the appointment of Mr. Masumoto, as the Japanese labor representative to Washington. The labor parties resented the selection and named two delegates of their own. The Government representative was to leave Yokohama on the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Fushimi Maru, and the labor men decided to precede him from Seattle. They camped at Masumoto's headquarters in Tokyo, but Masumoto was wily and escaped by a back exit. When the mob found that the representative had eluded them they became excited and made Masumoto's right hand man the subject of their rebuffs.

On the Fushimi, in the meantime Masumoto had reached Yokohama and secreted himself on the Fushimi Maru, but when a demonstration was made and an order executed for the ship to be searched, the representative escaped once more. Arrangements were made for him to join the Fushimi Maru from a launch outside the breakwater. This was done.

When the Japanese labor men discovered that they had been foiled they named two delegates of their own and booked passage on the Empress of Asia, which was sailing the following day. The Asia overhauled the Fushimi and in here two days ahead of her. The Japanese delegates this morning were quite pleased to know that they had scored first in the fight.

Had Fine Trip. Capt. Hailoy reports a most pleasant passage from Hongkong and Yokohama. The big ship was ten days crossing from the latter port, and had fine weather until nearing the Coast yesterday when fog was encountered. The ship arrived at William Head early this morning and followed the Arabia Maru to the outer docks. The Asia brought a full list of seamen passengers. Sir George Elliott, who was for some time attached to the Hongkong University, was among the passengers. He is returning to England and it is understood will later proceed to Tokio to become British Ambassador.

General J. M. Blair, chief of staff of the Omsk expedition, was also aboard. He is en route to London. Ed. Hill, who was formerly connected with the firm of Shortt, Hill & Duncan, returned accompanied by Mrs. Hill. He has been in the commission business in the Orient for the past two years.

Mrs. Lee Mong Kow, who accompanied her daughter to Peking, was also a passenger. It was her first trip to China. She is extremely glad to be back in Victoria.

STRIKERS WANT FOOD

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—Steps to develop a commissary system to feed the striking shipyard workers in the San Francisco Bay region were to be considered at a meeting here today in the joint shipyard labor committee. Plans for a co-operative store have been developed and will be considered at the meeting.

Plans to raise $15,000 for payment of strike benefits are under consideration by the Seafarers' Union. A vote has been taken on the question of borrowing the money from other labor bodies.

elections, just so long as they are not allowed to vote in the Province in which they live.

As to the Future.

The Union Government has been making and is making a sincere attempt to curb the evil of profiteering; to make large income and large business pay its just part of the nation's load. Excellent results are being secured through the collection of income and business profits taxes. The number of assessments approved for 1917 under the Income-War Tax Act of that year totalled 51,477 and the amount of assessments approved was $12,162,416. The amount collected in the last fiscal year under the Business Profits War Tax Act totalled $32,970,601. The total amount of taxes collected in three years under the Business Profits War Tax Act was no less than $66,747,662. The maximum estimate of receipts from this source when the bill was introduced in Parliament was $30,000,000, and during the year 1917 the total direct taxes from profits and income amounted to $45,132,478, and I shall direct my best efforts to the end that this work shall continue to the rectification of still existing wrongs.

In regard to the high cost of living I can only say that this is a matter under the world condition of affairs to-day that cannot be corrected by Act of Parliament alone. National thrift and national production enter largely into the question.

I approve of, and will work for, the very best returns our country may find itself able to give our returned men and their dependents, recognizing that without them and their kind in the hour of need, freedom as we Anglo-Saxons know it would be banished from the earth to-day.

Ladies and Gentlemen, voters of Victoria, if my efforts in behalf of my constituency and country, in my brief parliamentary career, may appear sufficient to warrant you in voting for me on the 27th inst., I shall heartily appreciate it. A Victoria man in the Cabinet ought to be able to do more for the constituency than a private member.

TERRIFIC TYPHOON ASSAILED JAP SHIP

Arabia Maru Logged Only 200 Miles in Two Days on Voyage Across Pacific

Shortly after the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Arabia Maru, Capt. Saitow, poked her nose outside the breakwater at Yokohama on her voyage to this port, which she completed this morning, she encountered a strong easterly gale with a heavy sea. A few hours after land had been lost sight of the ship was rolling about in the grip of a terrific typhoon.

For two days the big ship kept her nose into the teeth of the wind and sea. Speed had to be reduced to ease up the laboring of the ship. In two days the Arabia logged only 200 miles, which is about sixteen hours steaming for her under normal conditions. Capt. Saitow said this morning that the Arabia was very fortunate to come through without any serious damage. The great seas reared high over the forecastle and swept the decks clear. At times seas were thrown clear over the bridge. Only a few screens and non-rigid fixtures were carried overboard.

In Fog Outside.

When the Arabia Maru was approaching the West Coast of Vancouver Island she ran into a very dense fog. As a result Capt. Saitow had to pick his way up the strait at slow speed. The steamship was expected here yesterday morning, but did not succeed in reaching William Head until 6 o'clock last evening, one hour too late to obtain her pratique. This morning the ship tied up at the outer docks at 9.30 o'clock and owing to the failure of the engine room to respond quickly to an order from the bridge for "half speed" astern the ship nearly shoved her nose through the end of the dock.

The Arabia Maru brought across the pond a cargo of 10,000 tons, which included a shipment of about $4,000,000 of silk for New York. The ship is discharging 600 tons of general freight at the outer docks.

Rice Triples in Price.

Among the passengers who arrived on the Arabia was Rev. N. J. McNeill, a missionary, who had his headquarters in Tokyo. He stated that the cost of living in Japan was a topic of much conversation. Since the war broke out the price of rice, the main article of food, has been trebled. All other foodstuffs have advanced proportionately.

Dr. Rush, who was attached to St. Luke's Hospital in Tokyo, was also a passenger. He is en route to the States. A number of steerage passengers disembarked at this port.

WILFRID LAURIER GIVEN TRIAL TRIP

Fifteenth Steamer Built For French by Foundation Co. Shows Up Well

The Wilfrid Laurier, the Foundation Company's fifteenth ship built in Victoria to the order of the French Government, was given her trial trip this morning over a measured mile course at Parry Bay.

The vessel showed up splendidly and averaged 12.29 knots an hour throughout the trials. Everything proved admirably satisfactory and the ship returned to her moorings at the outer docks shortly after one o'clock.

Seattle, Oct. 20.—Conquerors of nearly five hundred mammoth leviathans of ice-swept Arctic seas, representing more than a million dollars in commercial value, four sturdy little steamers reached Seattle from the far north on Saturday, after one of the most prosperous seasons experienced off the North Pacific coast in recent years.

This arrival, marking the homecoming of Seattle's daring whaling fleet, precedes the coming of another treasure vessel—the U. S. S. Nanshan, scheduled to reach Seattle within ten days with seal furs valued at nearly $2,000,000 from the Pribilof Islands.

Since last May the dauntless fleet of little whaling ships has been battling the elements and the giant mammals of the deep off the rugged shores of the Aleutian Islands. The four whalers, credited with the capture of 419 mammals during the season, are the Kodiak, Unimak, Tankinak and Paterson.

Kodiak Got Big One. To the Kodiak, a 90-ton gross vessel, headed mammoth leviathans of the largest whale. It was a blue mammal, eighty-seven feet in length, encountered off the Aleutian Islands. Capt. E. M. Pedersen, of the Kodiak, pierced the prize at a distance of about 150 feet. A terrific battle followed, during which the angry leviathan churned the sea with wide sweeps of its gigantic tail, endangering the whaling vessel and its crew.

Had not the local whaling fleet, which is operated by the North Pacific Sea Products Company, been compelled to combat an epidemic of influenza which took a heavy death toll among the Aleutian Island natives, there would have been captured a larger number of whales than in any previous season. There were more than a hundred more whales captured this season than last.

Former Commander of 102nd Battalion Tells of 700-Mile March to Caspian Sea

FAMOUS WARRIOR ADDS TO EXPERIENCES

Forming the Expedition.

At Basra an expedition 5,000 strong was formed. The men were brought from Salonica, Egypt, Palestine and Mesopotamia. The expedition moved off on the 700-mile march to the Caspian Sea with full pack. The men suffered untold hardships and privations and the casualties were extremely heavy. On reaching the sea the expedition embarked on two large steamers and proceeded to Baku. Following an unsuccessful operation with the Turks the force had to evacuate Baku.

After this action Col. Warden was appointed to the British Mission in the trans-Caspian with headquarters at Krasnovodsk. While with this expedition Col. Warden had an action with the Bolsheviks and drove them out of Merv and followed up the line 700 miles to Tashkent, which was a formidable stronghold of the Bolsheviks in the East.

Col. Warden was in front of Tashkent when the armistice was declared. He was ordered to Vladivostok to join the Knox Mission. He made the trip via India and China. With the Knox Mission he proceeded across Siberia to Omsk. Later he was placed in charge of the school of instruction on Russian Island in Vladivostok harbor. When relieved of this duty he booked passage on the C. P. O. S. liner Empress of Asia.

A Varied Career.

Victorians will recall that Col. Warden formed the 102nd Battalion. After having seen active service in France, the Colonel arrived here in 1915 and was instructed to organize a battalion. He immediately decided to form a Comox battalion and recruited men from the North. His battalion, which assembled on the coast, was sent to the front in France. Col. Warden has completed a trip around the world and has been in many wild and wonderful places. This morning he admitted that it was good to be back home again. The Pacific Coast looked better to the Colonel than any other place he saw during his travels.

FAMOUS WARRIOR ADDS TO EXPERIENCES

Of his many and varied marches throughout his career as a soldier, Lieut.-Col. Warden, D.M.O., formerly O.C. of the 102nd Battalion, known throughout the world as "Warden's Warriors," brands his jaunt of 700 miles on foot from Basra, at the head of the Persian Gulf, to the Caspian Sea, as the toughest and roughest. The expedition consisted of about 5,000 men at the outset but "the men just died like flies on the march," to use Col. Warden's own words. The expedition was sadly depleted by the time the Caspian Sea was reached, and those who were still on their feet were in bad physical condition.

After fulfilling the very efficient duty of commanding officer of the 102nd Battalion in France, Col. Warden, who arrived here on the Empress of Asia this morning, was recalled to England early in 1918 and detailed for a secret mission. He was ordered to take 600 picked volunteers and imperials and join an expedition to set out from Basra to intercept the Turks and Germans in Southern Siberia and prevent them from reaching India. The party crossed France and Italy and proceeded to Alexandria, through the Red Sea and up the Persian Gulf.

At Basra an expedition 5,000 strong was formed. The men were brought from Salonica, Egypt, Palestine and Mesopotamia. The expedition moved off on the 700-mile march to the Caspian Sea with full pack. The men suffered untold hardships and privations and the casualties were extremely heavy. On reaching the sea the expedition embarked on two large steamers and proceeded to Baku. # BETTER PROVISION ON BOYS TRAINING SHIP

Permanent Floating Training Schooner is Recommended For Service

Some time ago The Times announced that the negotiations conducted by the Victoria branch of the Navy League with the Department of Naval Service had secured the use of the trawlers now at Esquimalt for the training of the Boys' Naval Brigade. Meanwhile, as the permission granted was only regarded as a temporary policy compared with the larger objects of the League, efforts were made to interest the Department through the Dominion Council of the Navy League.

The President, Commodore Amelius Jarvis, took the subject up direct with the Hon. C. C. Balfour, Minister of Naval Service, and recommended that some similar provision should be made to that by which the Toronto boys use the Pinta on Lake Ontario. This boat is fitted up as a permanent home, and can accommodate seventy-five boys at a time.

Commodore Jarvis recommended to the Minister that an old sealing schooner could be fitted up near Victoria to accommodate up to forty boys at a time during the summer, as a permanent floating training schooner.

To Mr. Ravenhill, Chairman of the Victoria branch of the League, Mr. Jarvis writes: "For such work as we have in Canada the British Navy League strongly urges the use of sailing ships rather than steam, as in steam a man or a boy does not learn the importance and value of the wind and the tides." He points out that a vessel like the Pinta is much more economical to handle, and maintain than steam, and there is no question a better seaman is turned out.

The whole subject is now left to the Minister for action.

MOONSHINE WHISKY MAKER IS RAIDED

Italian Operated Two Stills on Large Scale; Heavy Sentence

Determined to stamp out the evils resulting from the manufacture of "moonshine" whisky, Inland Revenue officers in the City Police Court this morning asked for the imposition of a severe sentence in the case of George Chersone, an Italian, who was arrested at 255 Caledonia Avenue, by city detectives Saturday night. Two complete stills were seized.

Accused was found guilty and Magistrate Jay imposed the heaviest penalty levied for several months. Chersone was given six months' imprisonment and a fine of $500, or a further six months' imprisonment. He took the sentence bitterly and offered the explanation that two other men who had resided in the house had left the materials there, and he did not know the stuff was so dangerous. It was alleged Chersone had been operating on a very large scale and it was shown that the finished article tested as 81.4 proof spirit. Liquor taken from a barrel went 46 and from a barrel of raisin mash in course of development 12.5 per cent.

Detectives found a very extensive paraphernalia and many bottles and demijohns of liquor, as well as a full barrel and eight boxes of raisins. "It is very dangerous having moonshine liquor of this kind sold around at a high price," said Inspector Jones, of the Inland Revenue Department. Accused was undefended by counsel, and addressed the Court through an interpreter.

ARREST FOLLOWS RUNNING FIGHT

E. Macave Charged With Calgary Theft; Constable Had Narrow Escape

Calgary, Oct. 20.—After a running fight in which Constable Witts, of the provincial police at Macleod, narrowly escaped being shot to death, the capture was effected of Edward Macave, alias Dr. Dixon, suspected of being the man who daringly robbed Dr. Patrick's safe in the Bank of Commerce Building here in broad daylight on Friday of $100 in cash and a $1,000 Victory Bond.

Macave attempted to sell the Victory Bond in Macleod to the Bank of Montreal, but the bank, becoming suspicious, notified Constable Witts, who in attempting to arrest Macave almost was killed. After a running fight Macave was overpowered.

On Saturday, during the lunch hour, someone entered Dr. Patrick's office and rifled the safe, obtaining the cash and a $1,000 Victory Bond. Macave is now held in a Calgary police cell awaiting preliminary hearing.

City and Farm Equally Benefit

The man in the city and the man on the farm is each concerned with the other's prosperity, and each has equally strong personal reasons for supporting the Victory Loan 1919.

Last year Canada shipped to Great Britain and our European Allies $496,932,191 worth of the products of our farms.

The future of Canadian Agriculture depends upon holding and extending its export trade in farm products, and the future of city and town prosperity is interwoven with agricultural prosperity.

Great Britain and our European Allies provide a ready market. But as a result of the strain of war, they are short of cash. They must buy on credit for a time.

The British market particularly, we must not—dare not—lose, because we have spent many long years in cultivating it, and establishing a prestige there for Canadian products.

Great Britain asks for a credit to buy our surplus food stuffs, and Britain always pays her debts. Our ability to extend this credit depends upon the success of the Victory Loan 1919.

Just think what it means to all of us to keep Canadian agriculture prosperous.

Canadian farmers form a large porportion of the buyers of Canada's manufactured products, resulting in trade for the manufacturer and retailer, and employment for the man in city and town.

With the money from the sale of his products the farmer buys agricultural implements, gasoline engines, tractors, wagons, seed, wire fences, fertilizers, milk cans, building material, roofing, furniture, carpets, furnishings, stoves, clothing, boots and shoes, groceries, drugs, pianos, talking machines, automobiles, papers, and scores of other things.

The city and town man makes these goods, and his wages are spent in his local stores, so that starting with the farmer the chain of trade travels through every class of the community.

The city again furnishes a home market for the farmers. Our cities have been built by our farmers—by those farm boys who have developed genius in organization, business and finance, and who do not have to leave Canada to find a field for their activities. The farm and city are interdependent the one upon the other. Canada requires both, and both prosperous.

Then upon both the man in the city and the man on the farm there rests a direct responsibility. Both must shoulder it and unite in making an overwhelming success of the

Re-creating the Syrian Rose

LONGFELLOW says: "There was an old belief that cunning alchemists could re-create the rose, but without the bloom." This was done 'midst the ancient Syrian Rose Gardens, in the form of a wonderful perfume used by the princesses of that time.

THIS enchanting perfume has again been re-created by Parisian alchemists, in the form of Bouquet d'Amour—the perfume of Henrietta Face Powder. It will charm you. Also at 630 Granville Street

WORKERS CHEER MINISTER'S APPEAL FOR HIS RETURN

Hon. S. F. Tolmie Talks to Men at Harbor Marine Yards

Four hundred artisans at the Harbor Marine yards this afternoon cheered the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, when he asked for the endorsement at the coming by-election over his opponent Thomas A. Barnard.

"I want to know what is the rule of labor," asked the Minister who was introduced by C. J. V. Spratt as "a good friend of yours and of this yard."

"When a fellow works his best and delivers the goods, as I think I have done at Ottawa, do you fire him, or do you send him back and give him another chance?"

"I have taken a deep interest in these yards as I had something to do with securing these contracts. We must take prompt measures to provide for further work. Since I arrived in town I have been busy on this. But we would like to get two more steel ships, and also wooden ships and secure the development of the ocean docks. We have two excellent piers here, but we must not let them lie idle when there are all the trade possibilities across the Pacific."

"I consider it nonsense to be sending across the continent to the Atlantic side for our iron and steel when we can produce it here. Let me remind you that the first steel battleship Nebraska by Moran Brothers, of Seattle, was from iron from Texada Island in this Province."

"It was a special pleasure to me to assist in getting these ships, which are being built by a Canadian institution with Victoria capital behind it. But if we are going to have continued success, we must put our hands into our pockets and organize such industries as these."

"I do not hold myself responsible to any particular organization but to the judgment of the electors of Victoria as to whether I fill the bill. I am heartily in accord with anything that will improve labor conditions. I am a man who has done a great deal of work with my hands, working on the farm here near Victoria, and only got my board in return for my work. I am in a position to appreciate the situation of the man who works for wages."

"What I think you ask for is an opportunity to work for good wages under satisfactory conditions. You are not looking for a handout, but the chance to work like an honest citizen of this country."

Dr. Tolmie also dealt briefly with his record at Ottawa, told of securing the steel ship contracts and explained the drydock situation.

"If my election depended on getting into Parliament and causing a flag on the drydock as I have been accused, I would not be standing here to-day," he said.

He declared that the Canadian Government is more generous with its gratuities to returned soldiers than any other country, even "that ultra-democratic country of Australia." He asserted that the Canadian pensions scale was one-third higher than any other country.

"This country is more generous than any other country in the world in regard to its treatment of returned soldiers," he said. "It has also a liberal land policy and has placed on the land more men than Australia and England combined."

PASTOR DEFENDS PLATFORM STAND

Tells Congregation He Stands Firm For Constitutional Government

The Rev. W. D. Spence, pastor of the First Congregational Church, who supports the election campaign of Thomas A. Barnard, candidate of the Federated Labor Party, against the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, told his congregation at last night's service that whenever in the history of the country some out-crying moral question arises, he felt it his duty as a Christian man as well as a minister to take part in it.

He said that under social conditions with wealth rising up on one side, such preaching as was done by John the Baptist and Jesus Christ is necessary although a man might be turned out of the church for it.

He defended "preaching that would cut right to the marrow as long as the preacher has the conviction."

Last night's sermon was one of the series Rev. Mr. Spence is giving on Socialism and the Church as Co-operating Forces. He dealt with the ideals of sane socialism, contrasting the "extremist with the level-headed fellow who has had the education and appreciates the constitutional means necessary to bring about improved social conditions generally."

"If we merely have the social fabric built up from below and from outside, we may have only a materialistic Utopia," he said. "The work of the church is necessary to give ethical balance to any such scheme. Since the church would approach these problems from above and from within, she is in a position to give a new heart and to create a virile public conscience."

"I want it clearly understood that in all my teaching from the pulpit of the church I stand for righteousness and constitutional government. The Union Jack has always been and is the flag under which I want to live and serve. I stand for liberty and if some people may have infringed on that or usurped a place that is the fault of the individuals and not of the flag."

GUM TENDERNESS — A TOOTH-MENACE

It is true that four out of five people over forty suffer from gum shrinkage, or Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease). But many people even under thirty have Pyorrhea. Women, particularly after the baby comes, are peculiarly subject to Pyorrhea. At such time they cannot be too careful about their teeth.

Pyorrhea commences with tender gums, or with gum-bleeding, at tooth-brush time. Gradually the gums become spongy. They inflame and then shrink. The teeth become exposed to decay at the base and tiny openings in the gums become the breeding places of disease germs which infect the joints—or tonsils—cause other ailments.

Beware of that first gum tenderness! Try Forhan's for the gums. It positively prevents Pyorrhea, if used as directed. No ordinary tooth paste will do this.

And Forhan's cleans teeth scientifically as well. Brush your teeth with it. It keeps the teeth white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment, 35c and 60c tubes. All Drug-gists.

FORCED OFFICIALS TO LEAVE REGION

People of North Australia Mean to Have Representative Government

London, Oct. 20.—The members of the Territorial Government of the Northern Territory of Australia yielded to threats from the colonists there and left Port Darwin on Saturday. Their departure followed a demand by the colonists for the institution of a representative government and the right to vote and a request that the Territorial Government officials leave by the first ship "in order to avoid a revolution."

The decision to eject the Territorial Government was made at a citizens' meeting held at Port Darwin, the principal harbor of the Territory, at which a resolution was adopted declaring that the system of administration of the Territory by an Advisory Council had proved abortive.

The citizens demand the resignation of Judge Bevan and of R. O. Evans, the Secretary-Director of the Territory. A second resolution requested those officials to leave the Territory by the first steamship in order "to avoid a revolution."

The citizens of the Northern Territory complained that although paying taxes, they possessed no vote, and demanded a representative government.

The Northern Territory, a sparsely settled region in Northern Australia, with an area of 532,620 square miles and a population, excluding aboriginal tribes, of less than 5,000, formerly was a corporate part of the State of South Australia, but it was surrendered by the South Australian Government to the Commonwealth on January 1, 1911, and has since been governed under an appointed Territorial Administration.

The coastal regions of the Territory have a tropical climate, but in the interior is a tableland, rising gradually from the coast to a height of about 1,700 feet. Parts of this tableland are excellently adapted to grazing and the white inhabitants, about one-half of the 5,000 non-aboriginal population, are principally engaged in cattle-raising.

Heals Inflamed Nostrils Stops Catarrhal Discharge, Cures Colds Quickly

Poor remedies have given Catarrh the reputation of being incurable. But it is curable, easily and quickly, if the right method is employed. Snuffing a powder or ointment up the nose won't cure Catarrh, neither will tablets, douching, or stomach medicines cure. These treatments fail because they only affect local conditions, they do not remove the cause, which is germ life established in the lungs, bronchial tubes, and nasal passages. Ordinary remedies do not reach these remote parts, but Catarrhosone does for it is breathed through the inhaler into every air cell in the lungs, into every air passage in the head and throat. No matter where the Catarrh is Catarrhosone will reach it. It kills the germs, heals sore spots, clears the nose and throat instantly. Universally used; pleasant and clean; guaranteed to cure money refunded.

Don't be an object of aversion to everyone you meet—get Catarrhosone to-day and use it regularly; it will cure your Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Trouble, spitting and gagging. Large size lasts two months, price $1; smaller size, 50c; sample size, 25c; at all dealers.

TRENCH COMRADE LEAVES BARNARD POLITICAL CAMP

Sergt.-Major Mee Against Control of Member by Small Junta

"We want more work and less growling, more sane thinking and less unfounded criticism."

This is the way the Hon. S. F. Tolmie summed up the election campaign situation on Saturday night when he addressed the electors of Ward Two at the Unionist committee rooms, 1317 Government Street.

"Mr. Barnard is announcing his determination, to talk even if he talks himself into jail," the Minister went on. "I have no such ambition. I feel I can be of more use to Victoria by remaining outside."

W. G. Gaunce compared the gratuities and pensions paid Canadian soldiers with those paid to soldiers of other countries. The Canadian gratuity is $420 for single and $600 for married men. The United States gives only $80 gratuity. New Zealand $61.50, Australia $114, and Great Britain $423. As for pensions, Canada gives to the widow without children $576, New Zealand $379, Great Britain, Australia and South Africa $253, France $160, Italy $121.66 and Germany $96.

"We have preserved our free born institutions and our citizenship and the question is who will represent us at Ottawa?" continued Mr. Gaunce. "Mr. Barnard tells us if he can do nothing else he will make a big noise at Ottawa. The question is, do we want a big noise or a man like Dr. Tolmie who can do things?"

Sergt.-Major Mee. The feature of the meeting was the announcement by Sergt.-Major Mee that he had forsaken the political camp of his old comrade, Thomas A. Barnard, with whom he had fought in France, and would support and vote for Dr. Tolmie. The sergeant-major is reputed to be one of the oldest members of the Canadian army to go to France. He went over with the first draft for the 4th Battalion in June, 1915.

Cannot Stand "That Element." "I have been a comrade of Tom Barnard over there in the trenches in France," Sergt.-Major Mee arose and said at the meeting. "We are good friends and comrades now, but I cannot vote for him at this election."

"Dr. Tolmie, I may say I have up

TELL THE WORLD THIS WOMAN SAYS

That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made Me a Well Woman.

Los Angeles, Cal.—"I suffered with female troubles for years, was sick most of the time, was not able to do my own housework, and I could not get help from doctors. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers, and took six bottles, and am a well woman. You can use my name to tell the world that your medicine has done me as I shall praise it always."—Mrs. A. L. DeVries, 647 St. Paul Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif.

Women who suffer from any form of weakness, as indicated by displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues," should do as Mrs. DeVries did, and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a thorough trial. For over forty years this famous remedy, which contains the curative, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, has been correcting just such ailments. If you have mysterious complications write for advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

to date in this campaign been against you. Your opponent was a comrade of mine in the trenches. We fought together and I want to tell you Barnard was a good soldier, a good comrade and a man. I was supporting him until I saw where he did a thing that turned me against him. He should never have given that resignation. It has taken from him his independence and has placed him in a position where he has to obey the dictates of a few of that element who I and Mr. Barnard know opposed us when we were fighting in the trenches and needed reinforcements. I can't stand for that element, and I regret that my former comrade has taken the step he has. But since it is so, I can only, in fairness to my convictions, withdraw my support of his candidature and support Dr. Tolmie. I will have nothing more to do with Tom Barnard's candidature. There are lots more returned men who think the same as I, and will not support him at this election."

"I worked hard for Dr. Tolmie's election in 1917. I have never had the honor of shaking hands with him, nor have I camouflaged him for a job. Dr. Tolmie has done his duty as a member. The Government has failed in my opinion in some respects, but Dr. Tolmie has proved his worth and has been a good representative of Victoria."

Stockbreeder's Opinion. D. R. McCrimmon, formerly a stock breeder of Glenarry County, who is now living in Victoria, said that the people of Victoria do not appreciate what a capable man they have in Dr. Tolmie.

"The Union Government never did a better thing than when it took Dr. Tolmie into the Cabinet and gave him the portfolio of Minister of Agriculture. His qualifications fit him in eminent degree for the office, and the people of Victoria will make a most serious mistake if they do not return him by an overwhelming majority. I know of nothing of his opponent, but I judge from his platform utterances and as between the two candidates there is no choice. Dr. Tolmie, as Minister of Agriculture, is perhaps the best fitted man for the office of any occupant of any other Cabinet office."

Political Insanity. "We breeders of the East rejoiced when we heard a real, capable farmer was to get the portfolio. It meant great things for the agricultural and stock raising industries of Canada, than which, in my opinion, none other is more important. I am looking at the matter from the broad Dominion-wide standpoint rather than the purely local one. But Victorians must surely be impressed with the fact that to have their own representative not only in the House, but in the Cabinet, is of paramount importance to this City. When the great and important agricultural industry of the whole country can rejoice at the elevation of Dr. Tolmie, it would appear to be the height of absurdity for his own townspeople to turn him down now. It would savor of political insanity, in my opinion."

Alderman Sargent, who was chairman, said that it was going a little too far when a man from New Westminster, with absolutely no stake in the riding, enters the field in an effort to defeat Victoria's own member whose influence for good in the community has been vastly increased by his elevation to cabinet rank, he said. The alderman did not blame the average labor man for the unnecessary election, but the post-war unrest, similar to that which has followed all other wars, had produced a species of agitator, and these agitators were responsible for the present trouble in Victoria, he claimed.
